BNS - LOWER MOUNTAINS V DOONSIDE

There's no tougher assignment than heading to Warrimoo for a clash against an undefeated Lower Mountains, especially for the Roos, who kicked off the season with a big loss to the Eagles.

That said, Doonside has picked up the pieces in recent weeks and will fancy their chances of staging a major upset.

2

COLYTON V CAMBRIDGE PARK

It's still too early to call it do-or-die for Colyton, but the Colts will be desperate to put together two halves of footy when they host a resurgent Cambridge Park.

Staring down the barrel of four straight losses, Colyton knows they can challenge the best — the issue has been maintaining it for the full 80 minutes.

3

EMU PLAINS V ST CLAIR

Buckle up for this one! You can bet Emu Plains skipper Tom Romer marked this one on the calendar after his side was ambushed by a 12-man Comets in round one.

As the only unbeaten side, St Clair has the chance to add another layer of doubt for an opponent they are sure to meet in the finals.

4

BROTHERS V WINDSOR

Brothers are a tough read, especially when you don't know who will be boarding the bus. After knocking off Saints, they were hammered by Emu Plains.

One thing's for sure: no matter the team list, they'll have their hands full against the exciting Wolves, who have amassed 108 points in their last two outings.

5

RIVERSTONE V ST MARYS

After a promising start to the season, the Razorbacks regressed into old habits when the mercy rule was invoked during their heavy round four loss to Windsor.

This week won't be any easier, as they host a St Marys side seeking redemption after their last-start loss to Cambo.
