THE PONDS STADIUM

1

RIVERSTONE V COLYTON

With one win each to start the season, the bottom two teams face off in an important clash where a victory could kickstart a finals charge.

Colyton got the chocolates back in round one, but the Razorbacks weren't far off the pace, letting it slip in the closing stages.

2

ST CLAIR V BROTHERS

Yet to taste defeat, it's difficult to see St Clair dropping this one. Lucky to come away with a last-start draw with St Marys, the Comets should be desperate to regain that winning feeling.

After letting an 18-point lead slip against Riverstone, Brothers will need to be at their best to stand a chance.

3

WINDSOR V ST MARYS

Arguably the match of the round, Windsor will start favourites against an unpredictable St Marys.

Fresh from sharing the spoils with the unbeaten Comets, Saints, at the top of their game, should pose a major threat to the Wolves' four-match winning streak.

4

CAMBRIDGE PARK V EMU PLAINS

With a 3-3 record, fifth-ranked Cambridge Park need a significant scalp to bolster their title credentials, and Sunday's home clash against Emu Plains presents the perfect opportunity.

While untroubled against lower-ranked teams, Emu Plains has engaged in some ding-dong battles at the top end of the table, making the outcome of this encounter highly intriguing.
