1

WINDSOR VS EMU PLAINS

After falling short against a 12-man Comets, Emu Plains' tough start to the season continues with a Magic Round blockbuster against fellow premiers heavyweights Windsor.

As is often the case between these two, the battle of the packs is expected to shake the foundations, in a shootout where Emu will be fired up to avoid an 0-2 start.

2

CAMBRIDGE PARK VS BROTHERS

Coming off heavy losses to start their campaigns, both these sides will be desperate to turn the tables and open their account.

Cambo were a shadow of the side that finished among the frontrunners last season, while Brothers will be keen to unlock their attack in an effort to mount scoreboard pressure.

3

ST MARYS VS COLYTON

Colyton got the job done in round 1 with a stop-start performance over Riverstone, but they'll need to lengthen their attention span to go the distance with St Marys.

The Saints' defence held up against Brothers, while they improved with the ball the longer the game went.

4

RIVERSTONE VS ST CLAIR

Riverstone have already shown they are a more resilient side than last season, but the ultimate test comes this weekend when they fall under the reigning premiers' blowtorch.

With their tails up following a hard fought win away to Emu Plains, given half a chance, St Clair has the strike power to unleash an avalanche of points.
