NOT GOING ANYWHERE

Penrith local Juniors and proud Doonside and Blacktown Bears men Jesse and Casey McLean have re-signed with Panthers on long-term deals.

Congratulations to Jesse on being named captain of the Blues side for tonight's U19 State of Origin clash where he will line up alongside Casey

YOUNG GUN JUNIORS RE-SIGN

NOT GOING ANYWHERE

Penrith local Juniors and young guns Luron Patea (St Clair Comets) and Billy Scott (Windsor Wolves) have re-signed with Panthers.

19-year-old prop Patea has been immediately elevated to the NRL squad on a deal that will see him remain at the club until the end of the 2027 season.

A St Clair Comets junior, Patea represented New South Wales in last year's Under-19s State of Origin match and has been a key player in the club's NSW Cup side this season.

19-year-old hooker Scott will also remain at the Panthers until at least the end of 2027 after recommitting his future to the club.

The Windsor Wolves junior, who also represented the Under-19s Blues last year, has been promoted to an NRL development player until the end of next season before being added to the top 30 in 2026 and 2027.
