TO: All Community Program Borrowers

SUBJECT: Follow-up Reminder Letter on Nondiscrimination Statement Requirements

On January 15, 2016, we sent out a letter informing all borrowers that the U.S. Department of Agriculture's (USDA) Nondiscrimination Statement had been updated. This letter is to serve as a reminder that as a recipient of Rural Development program assistance, you are required to post the full USDA Nondiscrimination Statement in your office. The enclosed guidance should be posted on a bulletin board or a location where it can be viewed by the public. Additionally, you are required to include the statement, in full, on all print and non-print materials (including websites), unless the size of the material is too small to include the full statement. In those cases, the short Nondiscrimination Statement may be used. We will monitor for compliance. Please see the enclosed Unnumbered Letter issued by the Rural Development Civil Rights Staff on November 30, 2015, for further details.

Also enclosed is a tracking sheet to better assist you with the process of tracking new applications (if applicable) by race, ethnicity, and gender when compiling information for your compliance review.

If you have any questions, or need additional assistance, please feel free to contact me at 937-393-1921, ext. 118.

Sincerely,

CINDY CAMERON

The regulation replaces DR 4300-003, dated November 16, 1999. All previous versions and instructions regarding the use of the USDA Nondiscrimination Statement are obsolete.

The Nondiscrimination Statement shall be posted in all Rural Development (RD) offices and included on all RD publications, press releases, posters, memoranda, letterhead, and email signatures. Additionally, each Agency Administrator and State Director must provide the updated Nondiscrimination Statement, in writing, to all recipients of RD program assistance. Recipients must be informed of the requirement to post the statement in all recipient offices and to include the statement on all print and non-print materials produced for public information, public education, or public distribution. Such materials include pamphlets, brochures, newsletters, websites, news releases, advertisements, and outreach letters. Each Agency Administrator and State Director shall maintain proof of notification to all recipients.

All content posted on a RD or recipient's website must comply with Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act and with all applicable civil rights laws, regulations, Executive Orders, and policies.

The attachment provides detailed guidance for the use of the Nondiscrimination Statement in print and non-print materials created by RD, as well as, by recipients of RD program assistance.

If you have any questions pertaining to the use of the Nondiscrimination Statement or require further assistance, please contact the Office of Civil Rights at rd.civilrights@wdc.usda.gov.
