

t s b v i

the texas school for the blind and visually impaired photography by an chih cheng

T S B V I

A photo essay of a special Texas public school located in Austin, Texas, and serving students ranging in age from 6 to 21, who are blind, visually impaired, deafblind, or with other disabilities.

Dedicated to all the children and staff at The Texas School for the Blind and Visually Impaired.

The caring of a teacher, the response of a student

I pledge

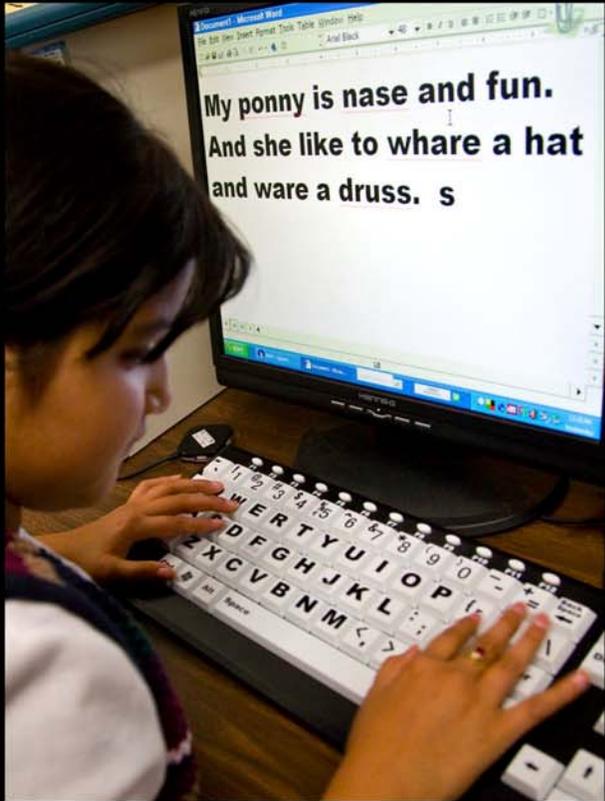

Science class: measuring weight

Science class: human anatomy

Making vibrations in music class

Sounds come in many forms

Music class. Opposite: On act drama, Burn the Witch

Physical exercise classes

Staying fit

Easter egg hunt. The egg emits acoustic signals to facilitate search. Opposite: cracking confetti eggs.

WILDCATS

WILDCATS

HINA

HINA

WILDCATS

Applying sunscreen

Dinning in the cafeteria

Crossing the campus

Riding in the bus to the grocery store as part of a field trip

Walgreens

Walgreens

Walgreens

TSBVI
Substitute
valid for outdoor use weather only
'09

SCARB

Shopping in the grocery store

Checking out at the grocery store

Riding the bus back to school.

Cinco de Mayo celebration

Enjoying ourselves in celebration

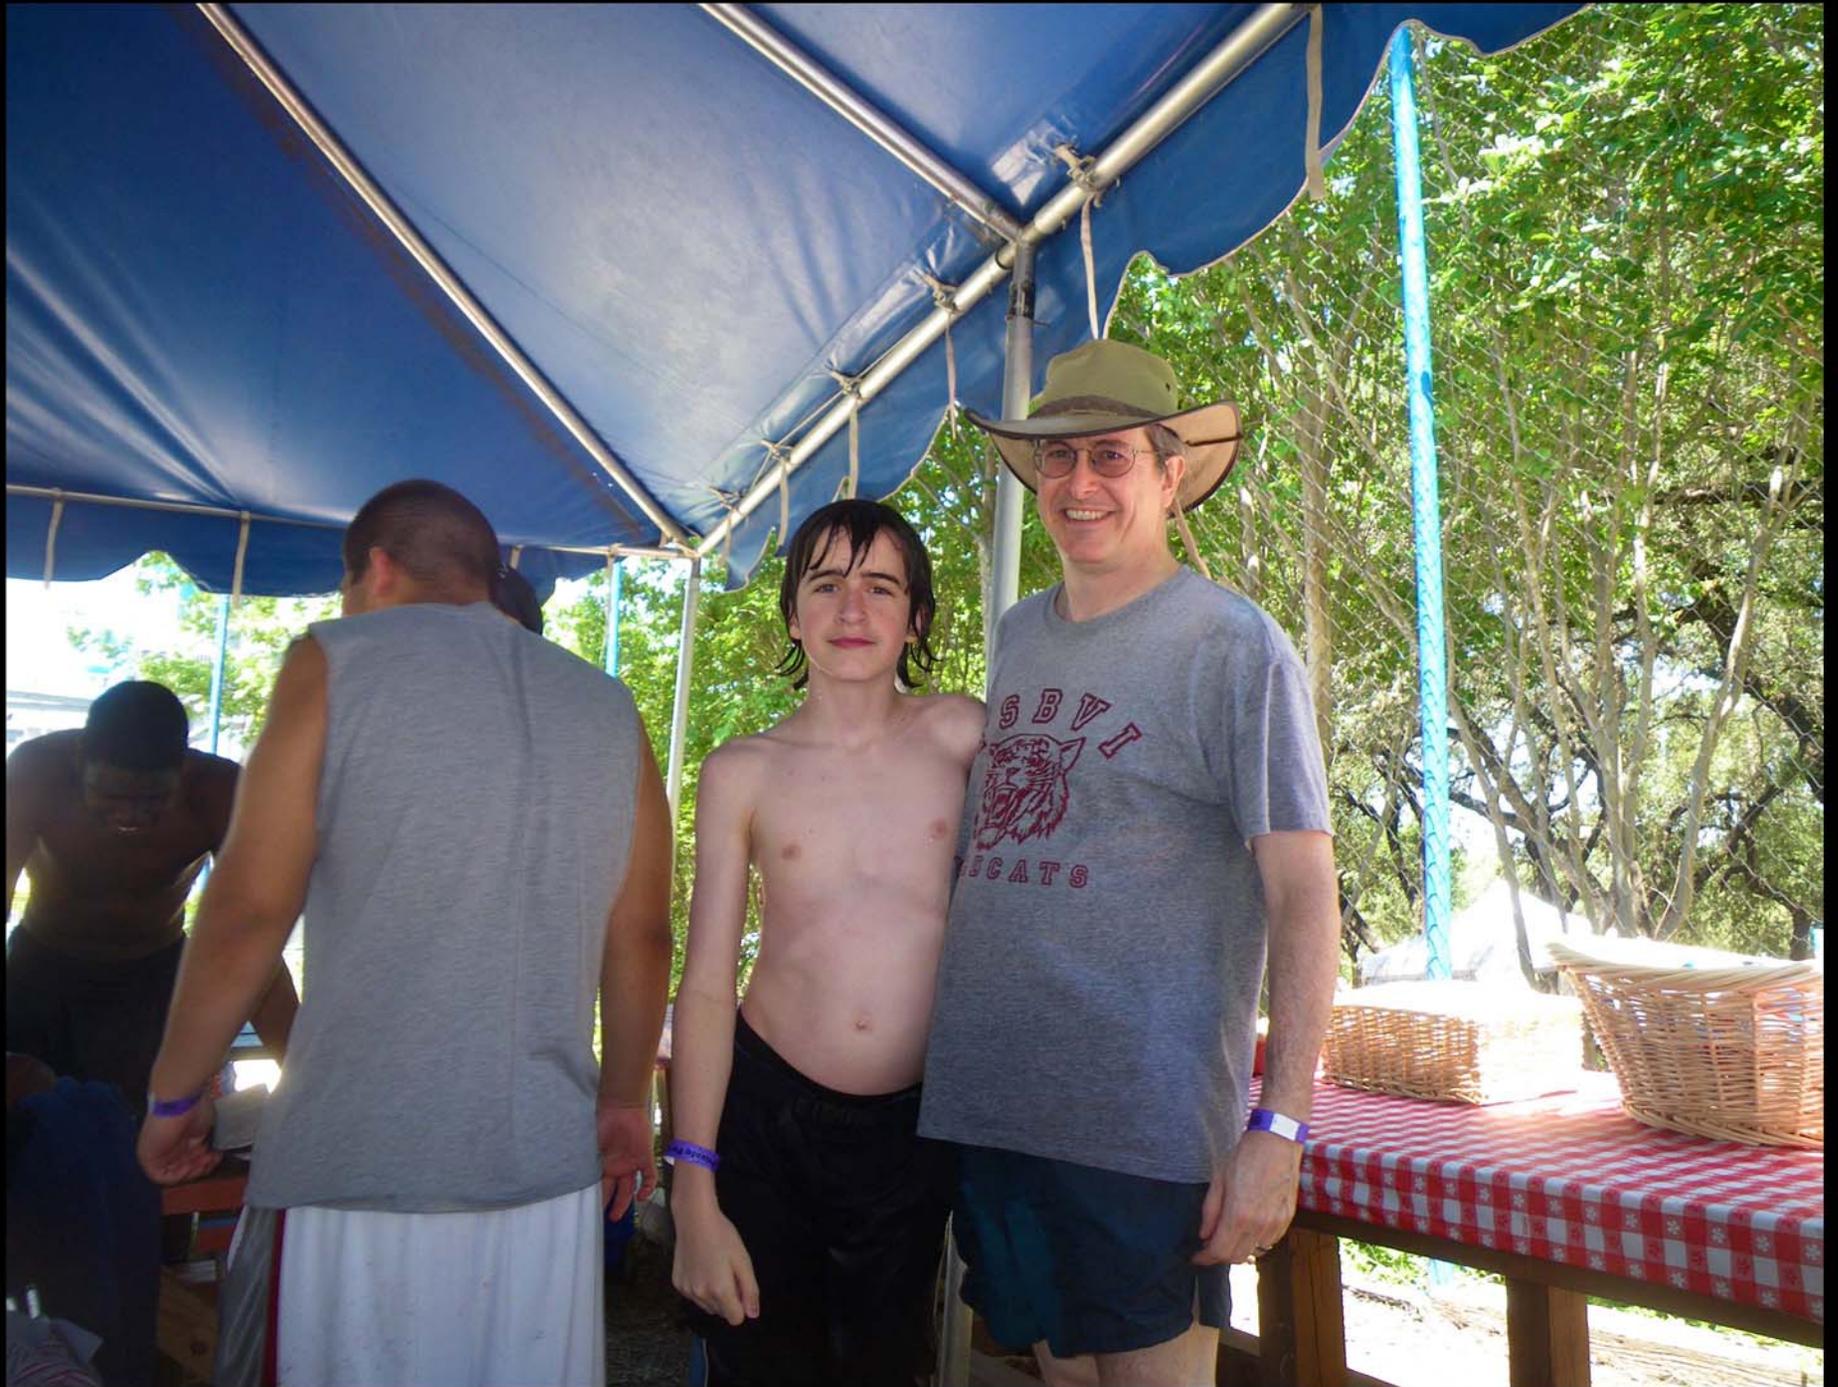

End-of-school year field trip to a water park

This picture was taken by a blind child

This is perhaps what the eye of a blind child 'sees' but is not what his or her mind's eye sees

Contact

Dr. An Chih Cheng
DePaul University
Chicago IL 60614
773-325-1632
accheng@depaul.edu

T S B V I

Cover: A deafblind child feeling the vibration from a loudspeaker.
Front flap: Operating school bus door.
Below: Dancing on Cinco de Mayo.
Back cover: Teacher and students.

t s b v i

austin, texas