Speaker Bio

Business trainer and public speaker, Blaine Little has been training for the better part of two decades. CEO of Momentum Seminars Training & Coaching, he has taught THOUSANDS of business professionals across the country. Blaine is known to keep training light and fun. After all, that's how people learn. The fact that he is a professional magician doesn't hurt either!

Author

Mr. Little is a best-selling author with one book on team dynamics, and another for managers. His third book is in the works!

Speaker Topics

LEADERSHIP – Though executives need help facilitating their strategic planning sessions, 40% of new managers report having received no training at all. Take the lead and schedule your training workshop or executive coaching with Momentum.

TEAM BUILDING – Only a cohesive team can move a company forward. The “Four C’s” of collaboration, creativity, conflict and change will make or break any organization. These workshops are interactive, fun and productive.

COMMUNICATION – Whether it's public speaking, interpersonal skills or a sales presentation, your voice needs to be heard. But with everyone having their own style, it can be very confusing to get no the same page. Get heard with better communication.
