2020 Congregational Watchword –

“He destines us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will.”

Ephesians 1:5

Fall in 2020 sure has a different feel to it. Saturday afternoons without our beloved Big Ten football games (at least until the end of October) still feel weird. School is back in session, but the traditional concerts, plays, and sporting events, where we can go out and support our youth are limited. The usual ramp- up of church activities have been put on pause as many churches like ours are just grateful to be gathering together again for worship.

I know that all of us are ready to be done with precautions and limitations we face in this COVID-19 world. However, there is still much to be spiritually gained in this season. A colleague of mine said this is the season to meditate on Psalm 46:10. “Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth.”

Therefore, when we are anxious about the future, let us remember to be still, and trust in God. When we are saddened that an event or tradition in our community, church, or family has to be canceled or rearranged, let us remember to be still and trust in God. When we struggle with new normals and long for the normal of old; let us remember to be still and trust in God. “

Brothers and sisters, let us be still and trust in God.

We do still have some wonderful fall activities coming up in October. Our Fall Festival will be Saturday, October 3rd from 4 p.m.– 6 p.m. Delicious meals will be $5 and include a wonderful apple dessert. Zoom Sunday school for the family will start on Sunday, October 4th, and will take place from 8:30-9:15a.m. We will have sessions every other week. We hope you have the opportunity to stay connected with your church family this fall!

We also look forward to returning to worship in the sanctuary on Sunday October 11th. We will still require masks, social distancing, and all of our other Covid-19 precautions, but will be a blessing to return to our worship home.

Blessings, Pastor Ben

CEC REPORT: Next Meeting: Monday October 5th @ 7 pm

CEC Meeting Summary: Held on Monday, August 31st (with a follow-up meeting on September 15th) in the church parking lot, to allow for social distancing – the fall weather we’ve been having makes for some great outdoor meetings! We made plans for Rally Day and Sunday School. Rally Day will be Sunday, September 27th with an hour of games and activities for all ages in the front parking lot following worship (no meal). Sunday School will begin on October 4th via Zoom. We also discussed the Halloween Party scheduled for October 24th. We may change up our activities this year, but COVID won’t stop us from enjoying this fun, family-friendly evening! Watch for more details in the next few weeks. CEC will be donating a few things to the care packages going to members not able to attend in-person worship, as part of the 2020 Moravian Day of Service. And we gratefully accepted a donation in memory of Emily Lippert’s grandmother; we decided to donate it towards outdoor sound equipment for our church.

Sunday School: Watch your email for the link to our first Sunday School Zoom for all ages on October 4th at 8:30 AM. We will conclude by 9:15 or 9:30 AM so anyone going to in-person worship will have time to get there. This class is open to all ages and will be held every other week. Based on our survey results this seems like the best place to start.

Mission of the Month// Joyful Noise offerings will be dedicated to Operation Christmas Child in October and November is T4C for share– a Christmas
