

Kendall County Republicans Vocational Scholarship Application

Dear Applicant and Parent/Guardian,

The Kendall County Republican Party, Kendall County Republican Women, and the Kendall County Republican Club are offering a Vocational Scholarship to graduating seniors residing in Kendall County.

To be considered for a Vocational Scholarship, complete the attached application and extracurricular activities page, and the essay question. When submitting your application by email, all documents must be scanned into one file and not emailed separately. Otherwise, the application will not be considered by the scholarship committee. All applications must be returned to Traften Werenskjold by email at KCRPScholarships@protonmail.com by Monday, April 6, 2026.

In addition to assessing academic progress and college testing, the applicant will be measured by moral character, work ethic, participation in school, job experience, community activities (including any church activities), community service, and financial need. An applicant must be a resident of Kendall County.

We wish all students the best of luck in competing for our Vocational Scholarship.

Sincerely,

Traften Werenskjold
Chair, Kendall County Republican Party
