

Thriving In High Point

From full-time employee to full-time entrepreneur C. Moses consulting recognized a need for HR Consultants and Virtual Assistants in the small business community. After years of wanting to work for herself and needing to learn how to take her passion for helping others and monetizing it. Crystal Moses had her ah-ha moment at the top of 2021 after talking with a friend who was a small business owner. She knew if her friend needed help with their small business, there were others just like them. C. Moses Consulting takes any business opportunity and finds a creative solution to strengthen the opportunity. If you are starting out, restructuring, or need assistance, C. Moses Consulting supports you through the business management process. Their Mantra is to analyze, identify, advise, and execute. C. Moses Consulting is there to assist each business owner every step of the way. They create relationships, not transactions.

From Pembroke, GA. Crystal Received her BS in management and MBA. She worked in hire-ed from 2012-2021. Married with three kids, She loves pink, shopping, and spending time with family and friends.

Crystal states that THRIVE High-Point has helped her small business by providing access to valuable industry knowledge. Thrive has also provided her with a free, passionate business coach and assisted her with the tools and opportunity to expand her professional network.

MINORITY
ENTREPRENEURSHIP INITIATIVE

WE BELIEVE IN YOU AND YOUR BUSINESS.