

Thanksgiving Day 11-26-98

Bobby and Linda cooked the meal again, Bobby's apartment again. The usual crowd was there minus Ken, Ma + Michelle. The Steelers were playing, but didn't win the game; then we all sat down at the table. The food was very good as usual. Turkey, mashed potatoes, sweet potato souffle, baked apples, sweet peas, baccali gravy and cranberry sauce. Also a pumpkin pie, cool whip and a chocolate/cream cheri pie that Jessica made. Very good! After the dishes were done, Bobby took me home. I gave him my service for 12 dishes and silverware, I really don't need them any more, I had plans for them in the past but not any more.
