Bob taught me this book Ken taught my first

May 17, 1998

I can't believe I haven't written in my book since end of 1996. But here I am on an important day in Bobby's life. He is graduating with his master's degree in Public management. I'm very proud of him, to see him forge ahead, taking classes for 2 years and still working hard at CMLL.

The ceremony took place at Rady Shalom, the place was packed, couldn't hear the the speakers, but we saw "Bulba Lee" pick up his certificate in cap & gown.

Then Eddie, Trish, Jessica, Anne, Mike and Linda, me and a few of his friends went to a lunch at "Eat."

and Park in Squirrel Hill. Bobby met his school buddies and spent the evening with them. Congratulations dear Bobby

It's Jessicas High School Graduation party, lots of food and lots of money for Jessie she's going to France with her French class in a few weeks and then to Pitt, so she'll need money to handle it all. Grandma Laura is there, she's a dear woman,
I like her a lot. Linda, Mike and the Keados were there, as well as Bobby.
We had a nice time. It's a long trip from Moxoerville.
My arthritus was killing me today.

June 27

Ken and Ma and little Michelle came in textie, Tomorrow Bob is having a get together for my birthday which was June 17, my 69th!

June 28

The party was just great. Everyone came, a lot of laughter. Michelle had a good time with everyone. The food was good, the cake was beautiful. The party was paid for by Ken as my birthday present. Bob was a great host, as usual.

June 29

I watched Michelle today, while Ken and Mea spent much of the day together. She is such a sweet little girl, as she walked up to me, I fed her meat balls & potatoes, but then she fell asleep on the couch. When she woke up she missed her parents. They came back shortly after.

June 30

I had the 3 kids in my care, while Ken visited some of his friends and Linda & Ma went to Sam's Club - Ken's treat to Linda. It rained very hard today

July 2, 1998

Today is Thursday, I went to the Mall today had to get my hair done

July 3

Ken & Ma go home tomorrow so I said my Goodbyes today, I almost forgot yesterday, here it is -

July 2

Bob took the day off, He, Linda & Ma and the kids went to Idle Wild Park. Ken went visiting again. But we had dinner together Michelle had a good time at the restaurant
