

I Surrender to the Will of my own divinity.

As you peel off the many layers of hurt and trauma from the other lives you are having here on Earth, you will discover that you have a lack of trust in God and Spirit. And for you 'surrender' to divine will is a fearful proposal. You have experienced the fall from god and now you are learning to trust again.

Once you have conquered that fear, everything is open to you, and you can have everything without limitation.

When you put yourself into a state of total trust, the universe responds, and starts providing immediately.

Blue Flame Diamond divine will meditation

The initiations of the first ray are of surrender to the Divine Will.

The retreat of Ray 1 is the Will of God temple in Telos.

Begin for our journey in consciousness to this temple now.

Take a deep breath. Relax. Call on your team in spirit of the highest light and resonance.

Ask for your field to be completely protected during his meditation.

Now Open body and open mind. Open all senses and check that your settings are on open. Love. You can always adjust them after the meditation.

Consciously call on your Higher Self, I AM Presence or divine presence.

Ask them to take you on a journey to the temple of Divine Will of God in Telos.

See yourself arriving here in your personal Merkaba or light body, accompanied by one of your guides.

Take a moment now to connect with your guide or guides. They will be with you throughout this journey.

In front of you now see a fairly large opalescent blue structure, quite tall, the form of a six-sided pyramid.

As you approach everything around you resonates with beautiful electric blue energy, so refreshing and soothing.

Begin to walk up the mother of pearl stairway in front of you to the main entrance of the temple.

Observe and sense, see or hear the blue mist arising from various high fountains around the entrance.

Blue flowers grow in great abundance around the entrance.

Enter now through the entrance and meet the 3 blue flame angels who are waiting there to escort and welcome you in.

As you enter into the large hallway you see a transparent chamber in the center containing a huge blue flame diamond. It's the biggest diamond you have ever seen some 15-or so feet in height.

With your guide you are invited to enter the sacred chamber. The diamond in front of you has several thousand facets, each one representing an aspect of the Diamond Heart of the Divine Will.

The diamond in front of you is not so different from the one living within your heart and in time, all the wondrous facets of your own diamond heart will become completely activated and restored to divine perfection.

Your Diamond heart and sacred heart are one and the same – they are components of each other. They are made of an infinite number of chambers, each one corresponding to a facet of your own diamond.

Enter the sacred chamber and be greeted by master El Morya. He may appear in blue robes with a white cape.

He greets you and welcomes you to his diamond heart and invites you to find a seat on one of the blue flame cushions before you.

El Morya now guides you to focus on the energy of the diamond heart and to breathe in the energies so that you can bring as much of this energy as possible back with you when you finish this journey.

In the presence of the diamond you can open all of the little facets of your own diamond heart that are full of fears and let them go.

Allow the diamond heart energy to magnetize and absorb whatever fears are ready to be released. Let them go now. Let them go now. Let them go now with grace and ease. Release and heal.

Open to the diamond flame energy. Let it release the fears, subtle and insidious that remain. Release any hidden or disguised fears, fears that have come through your ancestral grid. Any fears that are holding you back from opening and awakening all facets of your diamond.

You may not release all fears now but you may return at any time to the Will of God Temple here on Telos to work with the blue flame angels to release stubborn fears so that deep inner healing may be completed.

All that is required is your intention to be willing to work with the diamond flame until all the veils are lifted. You will know when you are complete.

Now connect with your higher self that is standing right above you. Your great I AM presence, the unlimited being that you really are. Connect with this divine presence and make your commitment to surrender all the fears that kept you in so much pain. Surrender them now. Ask to be restored to divine perfection.

Keep breathing in this wonderful cleansing blue flame, as much as you can. Let it soak into every cell in every level, dimensions, time space of your being.

Now it is time to receive a precious gift from El Morya. Open, accept and allow yourself to receive a smaller etheric diamond of total perfection radiating qualities of the blue-essence, within the sacred chamber of your heart. Allow it to settle in to resonate in divine perfection with the energies of your own sacred heart. This diamond reflects your divine perfection. With this gift, the perfection of the Diamond Heart will be reflected to you as long as you choose to work with it.

You may start breathing in the energies of this diamond every day in your meditation. Ask your higher self to show you facets of the diamond that are still holding pain or unbalanced attitudes that need to be healed and aligned.

The diamond you have just received will continue to reflect everything you need for the complete opening and healing of your heart. It will take you along the path of surrender with joy and grace. It is alive and vibrant. Its color reflects luminescent peacock blue.

Keep breathing its energies...allow and surrender to what is. Be resolute in walking this path and feel free to communicate with your guide.

Stay with this energy for a while and be thankful for the grace you have just received.

When you feel complete, return to your body, taking this treasure with you. The more you remain conscious and work with the diamond heart, the more its energies will amplify and bless your life. It will not help unless you use it.

This diamond heart also has a vibration of self-confidence. Tap into this self-confidence energy to assist you to release your fears, so that your surrender can be accomplished gracefully.

So be it.
