TO ALL LOCAL LODGES IN THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA

RE: Per Capita Payment Clarifications

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

This letter is to advise that there has been suspicious activity regarding spam emails sent to local lodges requesting that Per Capita payments be made to a different financial institution.

To be clear, the International Brotherhood of Boilermakers only processes Per Capita payments through the two (2) financial institutions below:

1. Bank of Labor
2. Royal Bank of Canada

Unless otherwise directed, all Per Capita payments are to be made to the International Brotherhood of Boilermakers and sent to the International Secretary-Treasurer's Office at 12200 N. Ambassador Dr., Ste. 301, Kansas City, MO 64163.

Any change to the Per Capita payment process would be sent by letter with official International Brotherhood of Boilermakers letterhead, signed by International President Simmons and International Secretary-Treasurer Penny.

We recommend that any Per Capita payments made by check be sent by registered or certified mail to ensure that payment is received on time.

With this potential for fraud and spam, we are requesting that all Local Lodges be cautious when receiving emails from International regarding payments. For example, the recent instance of spam was sent from an email address in which "Boilermakers" was spelled "Boilermekers".

If a local lodge receives a suspicious email or letter directing them to make a Per Capita payment in a method other than one currently used or to deposit the money in a different institution, immediately report this to the International Secretary-Treasurer's Office at 913-371-2640.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

Timothy Simmons
International President

Clinton Penny
International Secretary-Treasurer
