Playing with Percussion

with Mr. Howes

Steven A. Howes has a BFA from York University, majoring in performance Percussion, a B.Ed. From Nipissing University, and a Post Bach. Degree from the University of Manitoba. He is a certified Orff specialist, having completed Orff Levels I, II, and III and Doug Goodkin's 'Jazz Course' through the University of Manitoba. Steven has 27 years' experience teaching elementary music in the Louis Riel School Division. He currently is a music specialist at Frontenac School where he teaches elementary music and band.

He has been a clinician for the University of Manitoba Prep Studies Suzuki classes, Manitoba Orff Chapter's Orff Days and the LRSD Orff Days, as well as a workshop leader at various LRSD divisional band and choral celebrations. He is a past member of the Executive of the Manitoba Orff Chapter.

Steven likes to keep up his music skills by drumming in a cover band, singing with the Bison Men's Chorus, and adding percussion colour to various choirs in Winnipeg.
