

Who's Got Their Armor On?

We are facing an invisible enemy. We know that we are at war and under attack. We have been issued warnings, that if this enemy attacks those who are compromised, it may devastate and destroy the weak. We have an idea of how the enemy attacks and we have been given advice on how to protect ourselves. Wash your hands, wear a protective face cover, do not gather in large groups, and keep a safe social distance. This visual came to light as I watched the children in church sing with masked mouths standing six feet apart. The song lyrics...

The shield of faith

The breastplate of righteousness

The sword of the Spirit

The belt of truth

The helmet of salvation

Now tie my shoes with the readiness to

Whether we are protecting ourselves from a potentially deadly virus or the spiritual forces of evil, our human effort cannot stop the enemy from penetrating our visible or invisible layer of protection. No man can put their trust of protection in their efforts alone. “The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and will bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory for ever and ever. Amen” (2 Timothy 4:18). Safety is only found in one place, the one and only savior, who is Jesus Christ.
