FAQs

When are payments due?

A security deposit/reservation fee is due upon booking to reserve your date. The first half of the event cost is due six (6) months in advance, and the remaining balance is due three (3) months in advance of the event. Please review your contract for further explanation.

What is the event period?

The event period is from 8am-11pm on the day of your event. Music must be off at 10pm.

What size are the banquet tables?

Round tables are 6' (132" linens), rectangles are 8' (90"x156" linens). They are all the standard 30" height. The 6' tables can fit 10 people at a table. The 8' can seat 4-5 on one side if you choose to use them for a head table. We also have a small sweetheart table (120" linen) available for your use.

How many tables and chairs do you have?

We have 200 banquet chairs, 20 round tables, 6 rectangular tables, 5 cocktail barrels with glass tops, 3 barrels without glass tops, and 2 barrels with a butcher block top. We also have various spoons available to you. There are 6 Adirondack chairs around the fire pit, and patio furniture on the covered patio. We have 4 church pews on the covered patio, that we encourage not be moved. Any additional tables or chairs beyond this are the responsibility of the Guest.

How about outdoor chairs and tents?

White folding outdoor ceremony chairs are included. Tents can be obtained from a rental company. We can provide you with contact info to get hay bales, also.

Are linens included?

No. Linen can be rented through a third party rental company, or purchased online. Please see our suggested vendors list for any other vendor recommendations!

Do you provide wedding planning?

We are so happy to include day-of coordination with your event! We are pleased to meet with you throughout your planning process to help you along the way.

Are any areas off limits on the property?

Please advise your guests to not go into area directly surrounding the home on the property, as well as in the pond or pool.

Who is responsible for clean up?

We are present throughout the reception to help as needed, which includes setup & cleanup as well! To make sure you are enjoying your special day, we want you to have no stress! Please know that we are happy to take care of these things for you. Should you choose to do your own cleanup, thank you for putting trash into bags and collecting all of your belongings at the end of your event period. We will dispose of trash bags at the end of the event. For your caterers convenience, we provide a dumpster located just outside the kitchen area.

Is the barn water drinkable?

Yes! We have well water that has been tested by the Department of Health.

Do you have ceremony archways available?

We do! We have two simple archways you are welcome to decorate and use for your ceremony- both are wooden; one squared, one circle!

Are we required to get event insurance?

In the best interest of you and your guests, you are required to obtain event insurance with liquor liability for the day of your event, naming White Hollow Acres, LLC, its members and agents as additional loss payees. Check with your insurance agent, but also feel free to visit eventhelper.com. This is mandatory.
