

The Gradual Road to Ruin

FR. THOMAS M. SANTA, CSsR

A wise old sage once observed, “When it starts out stupid, it just gets more stupid.” The parable in today’s gospel illustrates this wisdom.

The son has been sent. The jig is up. The owner is not going to give up the vineyard. The tenants gambled and lost. It’s time for them to accept the inevitable and pay the rent. But common sense and wisdom do not prevail. Kill the son, they think, and all that he would have inherited will be ours!

How do you get from “don’t pay the rent” to “kill the son”? It is not a straight or smooth path. There are a lot of twists and turns between point A and point B. But it happens. It sneaks in. It demands little compromises and small dishonesties along the way as it becomes easier and easier for you to choose what is destructive. Then, you find you have lost it all—your very self. And the corruption you’ve embraced convinces you that you’re making wise choices. You must be completely cleansed of the seduction that has enabled you to make these choices. You need to start again. ●

Sacraments

ENCOUNTERS WITH THE RISEN CHRIST I

The Sacrament of reconciliation is offered on First Friday and First Saturday after the 9 am Mass, Saturdays at 3 pm, and most any reasonable time by appointment. Your identity need not be known; your anonymity is respected.

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is strongly encouraged by those seriously ill, the elderly, or those facing surgery. This sacrament of Our Lord's healing & comfort is usually available on the last weekend each month after every Mass, or by appointment.

The Sacrament of Marriage is a wonderful commitment to life and love, and the Church welcomes those who are called to this noble vocation. Christian marriage involves a couple's serious deliberation, prayer, and planning. The diocesan policy requires all engaged couples to contact the pastor at least 6 months before setting any wedding date.

The Sacrament of Baptism presupposes sufficient instruction according to the age of the candidate, and a desire to practice the faith. Expectant parents are encouraged to ask the Pastor for the Church's blessing for a safe and healthy delivery. Call the Church Office to schedule instruction and the service.

15 Promises of The Blessed Mother for those who pray the Rosary:

- 1. Those who faithfully serve me by the recitation of the Rosary shall receive signal graces.
- 2. I promise my special protection and the greatest graces to all those who shall recite the Rosary.
- 3. The Rosary shall be a powerful armor against hell. It will destroy vice, decrease sin, and defeat heresies.
- 4. The recitation of the Rosary will cause virtue and good works to flourish. It will obtain for souls the abundant mercy of God. It will withdraw the hearts of men from the love of the world and its vanities, and will lift them to the desire of eternal things. Oh, that souls would sanctify themselves by this means.
- 5. The soul which recommends itself to me by the recitation of the Rosary shall not perish.
- 6. Those who recite my Rosary devoutly, applying themselves to the consideration of its sacred mysteries, shall never be conquered by misfortune. In his justice, God will not chastise them; nor shall they perish by an unprovided death, i.e., be unprepared for heaven. Sinners shall convert. The just shall persevere in grace and become worthy of eternal life.
- 7. Those who have a true devotion to the Rosary shall not die without the sacraments of the Church.
- 8. Those who faithfully recite the Rosary shall have, during their life and at their death, the light of God and the plenitude of his graces. At the moment of death, they shall participate in the merits of the saints in paradise.
- 9. I shall deliver from purgatory those who have been devoted to the Rosary.
- 10. The faithful children of the Rosary shall merit a high degree of glory in heaven.
- 11. By the recitation of the Rosary you shall obtain all that you ask of me.
- 12. Those who propagate the holy Rosary shall be aided by me in their necessities.
- 13. I have obtained from my Divine Son that all the advocates of the Rosary shall have for intercessors the entire celestial court during their life and at the hour of their death.
- 14. All who recite the Rosary are my beloved children and the brothers and sisters of my only Son, Jesus Christ.
- 15. Devotion for my Rosary is a great sign of predestination.

To Learn More About The Unity and Trinity of God

Source: Collected from The New Saint Joseph Baltimore Catechism, No. 2, Official Revised Edition

Page 15

“Now, it came to pass when all the people had been baptized, Jesus also having been baptized and being in prayer, that heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon Him in bodily form as a dove, and a voice came from heaven, “Thou art My beloved Son, in Thee I am well pleased”” (Luke 3: 21-22)

The Unity and Trinity of God

1. Is there only one God?

Yes, there is only one God.

2. How many Persons are there in God?

In God there are Three Divine Persons-the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

The Blessed Trinity does NOT mean:

1 God in 3 Gods

1 Nature in 3 Natures

1 Person in 3 Persons

BUT

1 NATURE

in 3 PERSONS

3. Is the Father God?

The Father is God and the First Person of the Blessed Trinity.

4. Is the Son God?

The Son is God and the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity. The Son is also called the Word, or Image of the Father.

5. Is the Holy Spirit God?

The Holy Spirit is God and the Third Person on the Blessed Trinity. The Holy Spirit is also called the Spirit, the Holy Ghost, the Spirit of the Father, the Spirit of Jesus and the Advocate, etc.

6. What do we mean by the Blessed Trinity?

We mean one and the same God in three Divine Persons.

7. Are the three divine Persons perfectly equal to one another?

The three divine Persons are really distinct from one another. This means the Father is not the Son, and the Son is not the Holy Spirit and the Father is not the Holy Spirit.

October 4, 2027

8. Are the three divine Persons perfectly equal to one another?

The three divine Persons are perfectly equal to one another, because all are one and the same God.

The Father is all-powerful.

The Father is eternal.

The Son is all-powerful.

The Son is eternal.

The Holy Spirit is all-powerful.

The Holy Spirit is eternal.

The Father knows all things.

The Father is everywhere.

The Son knows all things.

The Son is everywhere.

The Holy Spirit knows all things.

The Holy Spirit is everywhere

9. How are the three divine Persons, though really distinct from one another, one and the same God?

The three divine Persons, though really distinct from one another, are one and the same God because all have one and the same divine nature.

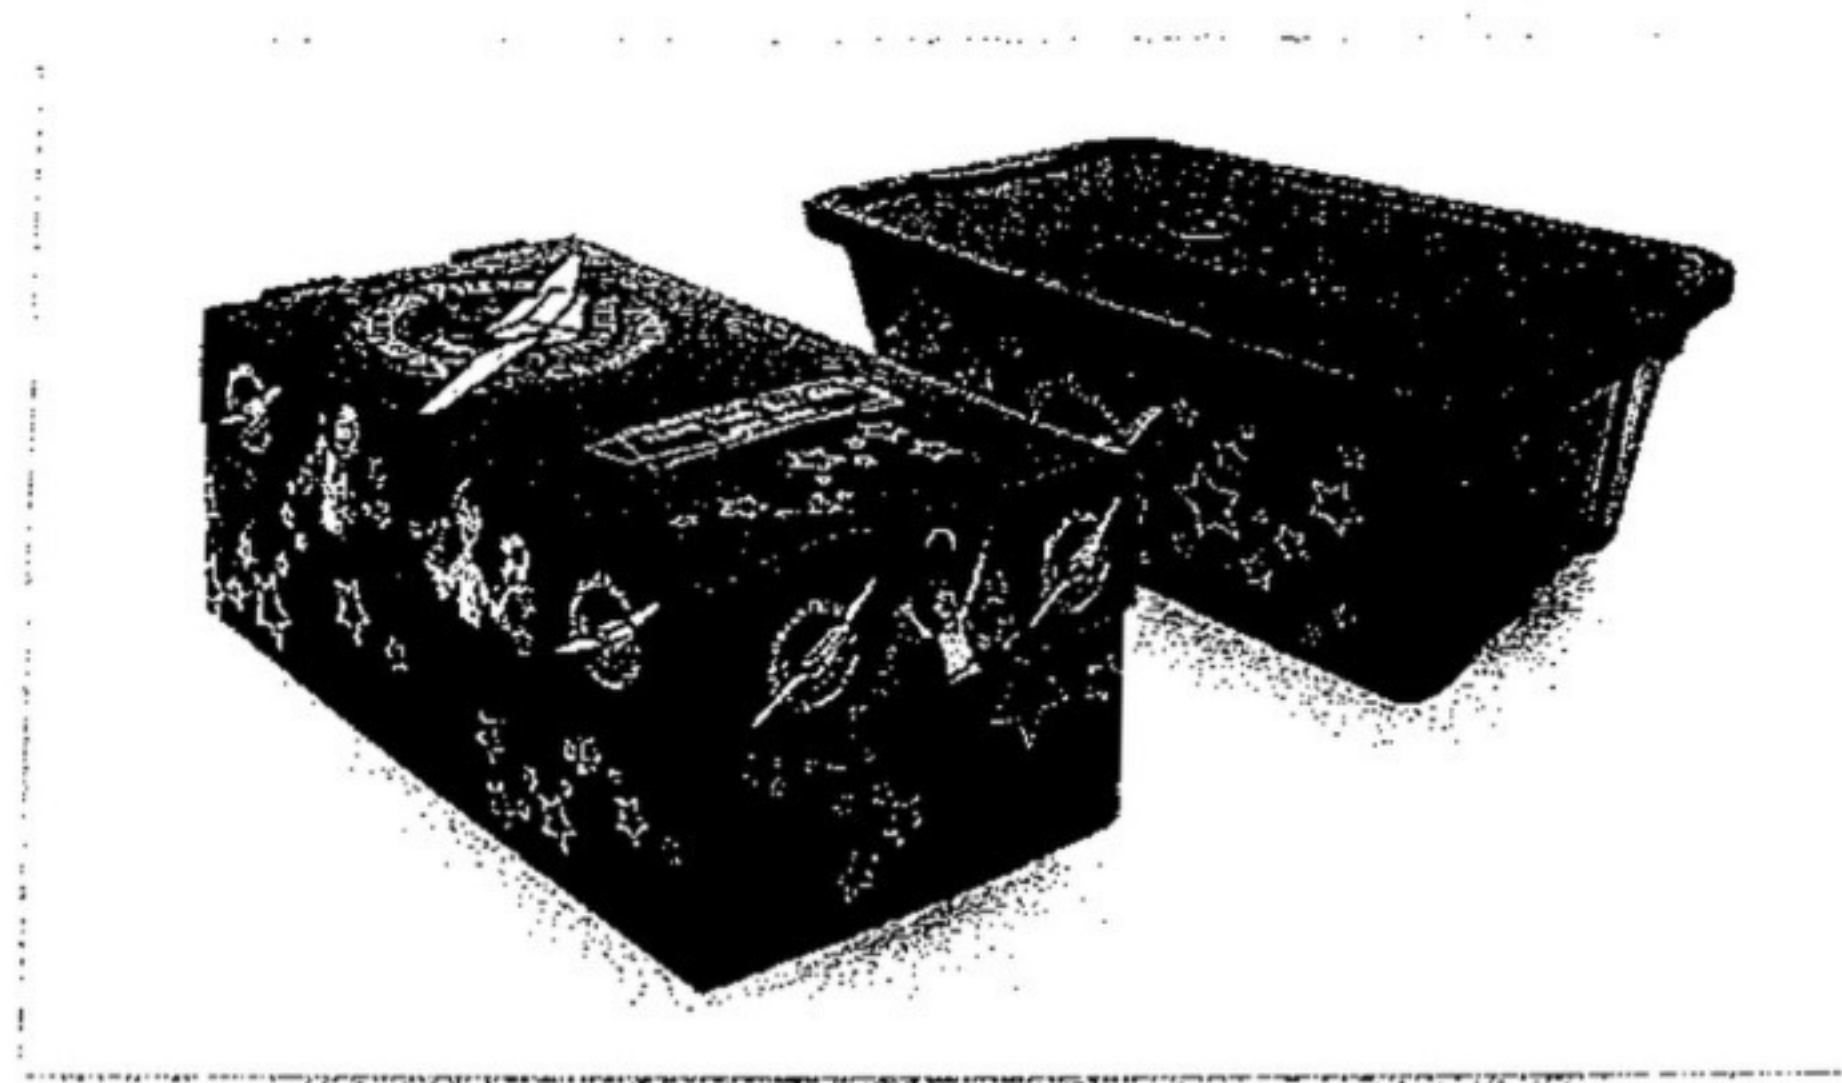

10. Can we fully understand how the three divine Persons, though really distinct from one another, are one and the same God?

We cannot fully understand how the Three Divine Persons, though really distinct from one another, are one and the same God because this is Supernatural Mystery.

11. What is a supernatural mystery?

A supernatural mystery is a truth which we cannot fully understand, but which we firmly believe because we have God's word for it. There are two kinds of mysteries, natural and supernatural. A NATURAL mystery is something hidden or unknown here on earth. For example: the nature of electricity, what is at the bottom of the ocean, what is in the center of the earth, what is beyond the last star, how old the earth is and so forth. A SUPERNATURAL mystery is something about God or our soul that we could not find out for ourselves, but which God has made known to us. We can know some things about supernatural mysteries from what God has told us, but not everything about them. For example the truths contained in the Apostles' Creed.

Dear Padre,

My friend is deeply involved in her faith, but I struggle with our friendship because I don't like how she treats her pets. I don't understand how someone who values religion so highly can show so little care for animals. What should I do?

Franciscan Friar Kevin Mackin writes, "The bond between person and pet is like no other relationship, because the communication between fellow creatures is at its most basic. Eye to eye are two creatures of love" ("Why We Bless Animals," Catholic Update). Because of this strong bond between humans and sentient creatures, it's especially difficult to witness their mistreatment, either through neglect (such as failing to provide sufficient food, water, shelter, or veterinary care) or direct physical abuse (a violation of anti-cruelty laws and a criminal offense in all fifty states). Studies show that owning pets offers us companionship and emotional support; in turn, these qualities can foster in us greater empathy and compassion toward others. Yet, while pets may greatly benefit our health and well-being, owning them comes with a serious obligation and moral responsibility. Vulnerable pets depend on humans for adequate care and protection. At times, some pet owners can be overwhelmed by their responsibility to provide proper care; others may even be unaware that they are treating their pets inappropriately. Out of concern for both your friend and her pets, consider a non-critical, non-confrontational approach to discuss your observations and to offer assistance. ●

Fr. Byron Miller, CSsR / DearPadre.org

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

Today we lift up our prayer for peace in the world, asking that nations renounce weapons and choose the path of dialogue and diplomacy. Disarm our hearts of hatred, resentment, and indifference, so we may become instruments of reconciliation. Help us understand that true security does not come from control fueled by fear, but from trust, justice, and solidarity among peoples.
