
Mike 'The Postman' Simmons

On Friday October 10th, Brockton Community Access celebrated the last day of long time staff member, Mike Simmons, who worked as the BCA Field Production Coordinator and Operations Specialist.

After a dedicated 18 years of serving the Brockton community, Mike recently started his new position as Director of Multimedia & Production at Stonehill College.

BCA wishes Mike the best of luck and thanks Mike for his hard work and commitment to bringing school athletics, government and school committee meetings, and community events to Brockton residents and BCA viewers.

Known as "The Postman", Mike always delivered to Brockton.
