BACK TO THE LAND...

“Red, White and Blue Farms” was Saturday’s Lake2Lake Miata Club destination. Envision an old “Saturday Evening Post” cover come to life: Families, picnickers, fields of blueberries and peaches ready for the picking once you picked up your pails in the charming farmhouse area. A motorized hayride full of revelers, some wishing an overall tour, first, to get the lay of the land.

Pickers were easily rewarded and though it resembled a corn maze, we all found our way back. Next the weigh-in, the pay-off, and on to the farmhouse porch to lay back in an old fashioned rocking chair as we gathered the troops for a blueberry-laden (delicious!) lunch. Yes the early kickoff from Jenkins Miata took us back to the land. It was a country festival nicely organized by Bill and Suki Karachi. They even slipped in a scenic stop at Shalom Park, enroute. There they provided superb, piping hot Cuban coffee in order to toast fearless leader, President Bill Emerson, simultaneously on a longer drive (to California) for an automotive meet of a different stripe.

Seven Miatas (and one designated “Honorary Miata” Mini) enjoyed the drive, the weather the fun, the food...did I mention the music?? Thank you for coming! If you missed it all, by all means be at-the-ready. Invitations for June are being drafted! ~
