Carol Senerchia won our Delaware 250 commemorative tank top at the Georgetown Spirit of 1776 Festival on June 13. Carol is in her mid-70s, walks more than 10,000 steps a day, and leads a walking club in Georgetown.

At the Delaware Retiree Community Showcase on June 10 (L to R): Bet Wong (Nurses & Neighbors), Kelly Sheridan (Delaware Community Foundation), and Sara Bluhm (Sussex County Land Trust).

Recognizing Nurse-Led Care for Unhoused Neighbors

Congratulations to Angelina Pulsifer for being named one of Delaware's Top Nurses for 2026. An emergency room nurse at TidalHealth, she volunteers at the Community Resource Center in Rehoboth Beach, caring for unhoused neighbors, and participates in our Neighborhood Foot Care Patrol®. This recognition also comes as Jane Kurz's article, "Starting a Nurse-led Clinic for the Unhoused," was published in the June 2026 issue of the Delaware Nurses Association's Reporter.

Zion Brockington-Davis, a nursing student at the University of Delaware and our first Summer Health Scholar, is developing our Health & Transit Buddy project. Please take this short survey to tell us about your experience with transportation. Your insights will help us better understand what support people need to get where they need to go. Scan the QR Code to begin the survey.

PREPARING FOR SEPTEMBER

Lunch With A Purpose (LWP)
Board of Directors (Helen Phillips, Joanne Harrigan, & Agnes Dipietrantonio) trained our volunteers on June 15, on hosting a LWP luncheon, to be held on Sept 9, Cambria Hotel, Rehoboth Beach.
Join the LWP mailing list at lwpcostal@delawareinstitute.org for reservation announcement.

Eileen Wilkinson from WELLarts is generating excitement with her tactile labyrinth at the Fund for Women's Women's Forum on April 30. She is collaborating with Nurses & Neighbors to introduce a workshop series titled "Quiet Paths: Expressive Arts for Reflection, Care, and Renewal", kicking off on September 23.
