

Jesus... The Prince of Peace

It is my prayer that as you hold this letter in your hands, you know, you are loved beyond measure and may the love light of hope fill you today and always.

I ask that Jesus rule and reign in your heart and shower you with His peace, no matter what comes your way, may you have joy in knowing you are His.

May His glory shine within you and touch the lives and hearts of all those you cross paths with, as the blessing you surely are.

I pray hope is restored within your heart and may Jesus be the One you seek and find each day, as He embraces you in His loving comfort and joy.

I'm asking Jesus to quench your thirst with more and more of Himself, to the point you remain in a state of contentment, in times of plenty and in want.

May He cover you in the shelter of His love, guiding you and keeping you safe from harm, leading you all the way unto your eternal Home with Him.

A note from Mare...

It was December 1921 - the 25th day. Two newlyweds had made a long journey from a far-off place arriving in America that very day with great hopes of having a family and living a long, better life. As they placed their feet on the soil for the very first time as a married couple, the woman said to the man, I am afraid! The man replied to the woman, "God will provide!" Years later the great depression hit, and it affected so many families deeply, particularly those who had so little. It was once again December 25th and this time they had several children. All the family could give their children that year to celebrate the birth of their beloved Savior was a small sack of oranges, costly and precious it was. Yet the children were so loved by their parents and so grateful at the cost of this precious gift they made sure to tell this story to their children. The man said to his children, this gift is a treasure for which we give the Lord all the thanks in our hearts. A simple gift yet precious beyond words, especially to me. The man, my grandfather and his words etched forever in my heart. Be thankful for what the Lord provides. Seek goodness and love and thanksgiving to God in all things.

God Bless and keep you – Always - Mare

Silent Night

Silent night, Holy night
All is calm, all is bright
Round yon virgin, mother and child
Holy Infant so tender and mild
Sleep in heavenly peace
Sleep in heavenly peace

Silent night, holy night
Shepherds quake at the sight
Glories stream from heaven afar
Heavenly Host sing, Alleluia
Christ the Savior is born
Christ the Savior is born

Silent night, holy night
Son of God, love's pure light
Radiant beams from Thy holy face
With the dawn of redeeming grace
Jesus Lord, at Thy birth
Jesus Lord, at Thy birth
