Jesus... love on display! ♥

And above all things have fervent love for one another, for “love will cover a multitude of sins I Peter 4:8

Did you know the Lord created you wonderful? I know sometimes we don't feel so “wonderful...” And thankfully, our feelings don't get to weigh in on the truth of the Lord's final word spoken over each one of us. You were created to be molded into His image of love, as a vessel of light placed here on Earth in full display of His love and glory. It is because of Jesus's commanded love towards us, we can start each day with a clean slate, washed in His love, forgiven of all sins and past mistakes. Who loves like that with such fervency? Just Jesus.

The Word says... “We love because He first loved us.” Jesus is the perfect Example for us to imitate when it comes to loving others and being loved. We've all had countless losses in our lives and yet, we all still need love to survive. Something really struck me in the above verse... It says, above all things, have fervent love for one another. Can we grasp that? Above everything else we are to love one another and as we sow love to others, in turn the loving compassion of Jesus covers our shortcomings and sin. What a divine reaping of the greatest proportions considering how easily our past mistakes can be wiped clean through the smallest of effort on our parts. And it is just that easy and just that hard, due to walls we have placed around our hearts because those who were supposed to love us, didn't.

The good news? Is how miraculously when we sow love, it is returned back to us full of healing power to mend back together all the broken pieces of pain so we are whole again. I know we often do not feel worthy of love, especially from such a pure source of love, being Jesus Himself. Yet, I also know, He did create you wonderful, you just got a little off track. But that doesn't mean you have stay on that crooked path. The choice is yours; Jesus is waiting for you to call out to Him for His healing embrace. He wants to use you to share more of Him with others, but first He must wipe every tear and heal every wound so what you pour out is His perfect love. You are His first priority and He is overjoyed when you invite Him in to love on you with compassion. Once complete, you become renewed to pour out like a leaky vessel His love to others. That is when abundance of joy fills your heart! It is why we, here at Ring of Fire Ministries, do what we do... The Lord told us, He made you wonderful and you matter. We love you & most importantly, so does Jesus! It is my prayer over each one of you, that you let the loving cleansing of Jesus wash over you today and be that shining light of love to all you meet, in that you know, your sins really are forgiven because... You are HIS!

Focusing on... Ephesians 2:8-9 ♥

I know there are times in everyone's life where you get to a point where you feel so unworthy of any good thing that the Lord may have for you. You may feel like you have let everyone down around you and that you have no reason to go on or take another step. This life has a way of beating you down and making you feel like there is no reason to press forward or to keep going. But let me share with you some encouraging words that may help you put things in perspective. You are not alone in this and I myself on many occasions have felt the despair of my situation. I want to share with you this truth from the scriptures that may put things in perspective. No one is worthy to stand before the Most High and ask anything from Him on their own merit or even expect that we may obtain anything from Him. For those that have received from the Most High a promise of a future, remember that none of us are worthy of any favor we might obtain or feel we have from the Him. It is "Unmerited favor" that is poured out upon us all. We cannot do anything to earn the Lord's love, favor or goodness.

We stand before the Lord in filthy rags, as it is stated in Isaiah 64:6, but it is only by the Blood of Jesus that we have been washed and have clean garments before Him, Revelation 7:14. The Lord has provided you a way to turn unto Him and seek His forgiveness for any and all that you have done. Then once you have repented, stay in the center of His will and stay focused on Jesus. Fill yourself with His Word and wash yourselves daily so that the Holy Spirit will flow out of you as clean vessels of God's love to those He desires to bring into the Kingdom of the Heaven. Grow in the knowledge of grace of our Lord and Savior Jesus and please remember this about our relationship with the Most High, "He doesn't need us, He loves us!" So, stand in the Love that has been lavished upon you and not only you but us all. May the God of peace continue to be with you and uphold you in righteousness to guide you in all your ways for you are bought with a price and a precious creation of the Most High. Brother Walter

Jesus said: "She has done a beautiful thing to Me." Then Mary took a pound of very expensive perfume of pure nard, and she poured it on Jesus' feet and wiped His feet with her hair; and the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. John 12:3

In that culture, a woman letting her hair down in public carried deep shame and was often associated with immorality. Mary was not embarrassed to show who she was. She did not pretend to be Holy or respectable—she came as she was and humbled herself before Him. The perfume, kept in an alabaster jar, was worth about a year's wages. She gave what was most precious to her, openly and without holding back. Others judged her, but Jesus received her. She saw who He truly was and what He was worth. Are you holding back out of pride, shame, or fear? Jesus receives all who come to Him. Let go of your regrets and give Him everything. He is worthy! Sister Ashna
