In the last days, perilous times shall come... 2 Timothy 3

Tumult is everywhere it seems these days – so we find ourselves praying, seeking Jesus – longing for the mind of Christ, when all sensibilities in others is diminishing, as people are outwardly expressing by their own actions the true natures of their hearts. I never really realized how much bitterness, anger and darkness resides within so many.

In my conversation with Jesus this morning, He reminded me of this promise:

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you – not as the world gives peace, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. John 14:27

I really began thinking to myself... Just how far will these human brute beasts go? Where is their self-restraint and self-discipline, as this lawlessness accelerates around us? Then the Lord reminded me how fearful so many believers are about many, many things and how so many have such little faith, seeking desperately to save their own lives

We have been granted access to die to self to the point we are fully surrendered to Jesus, no longer seeking to save our own lives. Once granted the mind of Christ – we are not tossed to and fro by the winds, affected by outside circumstances, double hearted and doubled minded. For those who choose Jesus, we have been set free and if we perish, we are promised a great hope in glory, in the Kingdom of our Father, with Jesus eternally, Who is Our Blessed Hope. We speak the words, but many hearts are far from Him, evidenced by the fretting and worry of what ifs? He covers us completely; He keeps us hidden when we need to be hidden and seen when we need to be seen. Knowing without waiver, it is no longer I who live, but Him who lives within me because I surrendered to Him long ago. When you understand and take great care knowing the Father knows our thoughts always, you want to be kept clean and pure for Him and nothing in this world matters like He does. He promises no weapon formed against us may prosper, unless of course we empower it to do so by entertaining that which undermines our faith. Don't you know Satan desires to sift you as wheat? What opens that door? Unbelief... While Jesus and His peace, that surpasses all human understanding, keeps us stable in mind and heart.

Those who are floundering as believers right now... Don't have His peace, they have their own. And now that all which can be shaken is shaking, self is all they have to hold onto. But we have... Jesus's peace, granted to us as a precious gift of promise. In that, if we stay or go... we are one with Him, hidden, safe, protected and secure. His peace that dwells within gets us through each storm and shaking. It's like a divine gift and pure in truth, unattainable by worldly means or earthly achievements found in self.

Seeking Jesus, surrendering your life to Him comes with a vast array of gifts... Peace is only one of them, but for today, I pray He bestow upon you His peace as you learn to fully trust Him to watch over, guide and protect you from all harm. May you know how priceless you are and how greatly you are loved by Him.

Jesus wants to be Lord in your life today and all you have to do is say... Yes, Lord... He does the rest!

In His Everlasting Love ~ Angela seek HIM while HE may be found!

All are welcome into God's Family!

By God's redeeming love, we come as we are to the mercy seat at the feet of Jesus. While the world and the adversary tells us we need to clean up first or that God won't really forgive us of this or that, we can have confidence in knowing at our very worst, Christ died for us. Yes, forgiveness is real and it starts with repentance from the old ways and a great heart desire to never return to do that thing again.

God loves you no matter how much dirt you have on you. Jesus meets you in whatever hole you're in... It is there in that dark hole the Way back to Him begins. Today is the day of salvation, praying you seek Him today!

In the Love of Jesus,

But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. Ephesians 2:4-8

Dearest Brothers & Sisters,

This is the day to "Choose for yourself whom you will serve" Joshua 24:15... It's a heart choice only you can make and Father God knows your heart, so be genuine! Read the words in Red that Jesus spoke, for they are the door to Eternal Life. Your Heavenly Father loves you so much that He sent His only begotten son, who suffered and died, was buried and rose again on the third day... Making a way for you to make it Home, your Eternal Home. Philippians 4:7-8. Take charge of your thoughts, not accepting anything that is not true, honest, just, pure, lovely and of good report, if there be any virtue and any praise...Think on these things!!! And if you struggle, call out to Jesus, He is with you always and will see you through. God bless and keep you from all harm. Stay close to Jesus, our blessed hope!

The Lord's Holy Scriptures are like a treasure hidden...

*Once discovered ~ how much you read or know doesn't matter near as much as... How much you believe in faith

He shall do, just as He promised in His Word!

Dear Friends,

Let me share something with you. Nothing is a coincidence. Apparently it may look so, but in reality everything that comes and goes in our lives has a reason behind it. More than a reason, I will say that there is a Father. One that loves you more than you could ever comprehend. Despite your difficulties and rejection from the people around you, this Father, has given the best He had in order for you to be free. Free from addictions, free from condemnation, free from guilt and shame. Free from sin itself. This Father has given His only begotten Son, to die, in order for you to have life. Eternal Life. He came down to earth being born as a little baby, lived a perfect and sinless life, did everything that His Father entrusted Him, and after that He took upon Himself the sin of the world, of all the people that ever lived, your sin as well, and died on the cross. But the third day His Father raised Him from the dead. He completed His mission. He became the Way, the Truth and the Life for whosoever believeth in His name. He was raised into Heaven and now He sits at the right hand of His Father. Whosoever believeth in Him, will receive eternal life and His Spirit will come down and dwell within that person and will teach that person all things according to His Word and purpose. There is only one name given to all humanity, in which one will find salvation. That name is Jesus the Christ, the Messiah. He is calling you this very day. He will reveal Himself to anyone that is willing to come unto Him. Are you willing my friend? This world offers nothing to you but fake hopes and dreams that will keep you busy all the days of your life, trying to accomplish something that in reality will leave you empty, and in the end, you will find the regret that you wasted your entire life for a bunch of nothing. But you have a purpose, a destiny to be fulfilled. I'm sure you have tasted enough of this world to know that what I say is the Truth. Nothing will satisfy you, not money, not fame, not possessions not any pleasures of this world. Otherwise there would not be millionaires and billionaires and also average people like you and me committing suicide every day. There has to be more to this life than what we see promoted. And there is. The Truth, The Way and The Life. I was once lost, but He found me. He gave me a purpose, He freed me from the world. He taught me what love truly is. He gave me the most precious gift that I could ever receive, His Holy Spirit. His heart, His love, His Word. The love of a true Father. Are you willing my friend? There is not much time left. Pay attention to the world around you and you will see it. It all comes to an end. There is not much time left.

Today is the day of salvation. Be blessed!
