Bob Walker, an American patriot, born on March 10, 1937, died on May 10, 2023. Bob spent most of his childhood in the Sacramento, CA, area. Bob joined the Navy, at age 17. He married Bonnie Kleindolph, a Navy Wave, on June 1, 1961. After 42 years of marriage, his wife died. Afterward, Bob joined the Widow or Widowers Club of San Diego (WOW).

Throughout his life, Bob developed a reputation as a very busy child/man, with a multitude of projects, as a handyman, always on the move, helping family and friends. As a member of WOW, he volunteered many hours assisting widows with projects that they could not handle. He loved the U.S, and was especially outspoken about his support of conservative politicians.

Bob was an exceptionally active member in WOW. He served as the Vice President for 3 years and President for 3 years. Bob brought “new life” to the Club in many ways, including assisting the editor of the newsletter every month. As a result of his dedication to WOW, Bob was presented an honor, as the recipient of the annual “Hall of Fame Volunteer”award, for his distinguished achievements in support of the Club.
