Standing Committee Reports:

Literature Report:

Benita reported that lots of books going in and out. A couple of large orders were completed in the last few days. Benita says she may need to order by early August. There was a Walmart bag left at the Roundup with 4-12x12 and about 10 workbooks for the Steps for teenagers. She has not been about to locate the owner of the books. Also, Ramon has donated the books and miscellaneous supplies from the Salvation Army in Koloa. There things are free to groups in need. Please talk to Benita if you'd like to have some of these supplies. Some Plain Language BB, a few BB, Plain and Simple BBs, Came To Believe and a couple 12x12. All goes well with the literature.

Garden Island Sobriety

Anne A. reported that Inkspot, the printing company that more organizations are returning to printer newsletters in addition to their digital editions. Deadline for contributions to publication is the 20th of each month. Please report any newsletters remaining after distribution.
