

THE CHARGE IS THIS

In Psalm 22, we see the life of King David enlarged and applied to Jesus Christ. What begins in humiliation ends in exaltation. Christ suffers and is brought low on behalf of His brothers. He feels the pain of dereliction, of abandonment by the Father as He bears the putrid sin of His people. Yet even in this, He is able to see that the Father is still His Father. Christ exits the tomb vindicated and approved by the Father. He has successfully completed His mission. He has atoned for His brothers and sisters, He has satisfied the wrath of God, He has defeated the sting of death, and He has been vindicated in new resurrection life. As we follow Christ in death and resurrection, may we see what David saw. The goal of this new life is to get it out and to make it contagious. The gospel of Christ is for rich and for poor. It is for Jew and for Gentile. It is for ancient saints and for those who have not yet been born. At Easter and at all times, may we be so closely bound to Christ that we remember not just that we have been saved, but also why we have been saved.

Keach's Catechism: Q. 66

Q. What are the reasons annexed to the fourth commandment?

A. The reasons annexed to the fourth commandment, are God's allowing us six days of the week for our own lawful employments, (Ex. 20:9) His challenging a special propriety in a seventh, His own example, and His blessing the Sabbath day. (Ex. 20:11)

We practice Covenant Renewal Worship.

Call to Worship: God calls His people out of the world to gather in worship of Him.

Confession: God reminds us of our duty to Him and forgives us where we have sinned.

Consecration: God trains us for holiness and service through instruction by His Word.

Communion: God feeds us in order to strengthen us as we go back out into the world.

Commissioning: God gives us our mission as we depart.

At Trinity, we believe children are a gift from God, and we encourage families to see the importance of training them to participate in the worship service. It is an opportunity to learn the music, vocabulary, and rhythm of worship from young on. For those times that children are especially disruptive, we have a family/handicapped bathroom and kitchen that can both be used as a cry room, as well as a nursing room (mothers only) that can be used until they are ready to re-enter corporate worship.
