

THE CHARGE IS THIS

The gospel is not a message we need to hear only once, at the beginning of the Christian life. The gospel of the crucified, risen, and ascended Lord not only makes us into Christians, but it keeps us persevering in the faith. In Christ, our failures are hidden in His victory; our faithlessness is covered by His faithfulness. His power is made available to us through the Holy Spirit. With Paul, we can declare that it is no longer we who live, but Christ who lives in us (Gal. 2:20). As long as it is called “today”, let us be diligent in exhorting and proclaiming the gospel to one another, that none of us may be hardened by sin’s deceit but rather hold our confidence firm to the end that we may indeed enter His rest.

Hebrews 4:1-10

Keach's Catechism: Q. 67

Q. Which is the fifth commandment?

A. The fifth commandment is, "Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long in the land which the Lord your God is giving you." (Ex. 20:12)

We practice Covenant Renewal Worship.

Call to Worship: God calls His people out of the world to gather in worship of Him.

Confession: God reminds us of our duty to Him and forgives us where we have sinned.

Consecration: God trains us for holiness and service through instruction by His Word.

Communion: God feeds us in order to strengthen us as we go back out into the world.

Commissioning: God gives us our mission as we depart.

At Trinity, we believe children are a gift from God, and we encourage families to see the importance of training them to participate in the worship service. It is an opportunity to learn the music, vocabulary, and rhythm of worship from young on. For those times that children are especially disruptive, we have a family/handicapped bathroom and kitchen that can both be used as a cry room, as well as a nursing room (mothers only) that can be used until they are ready to re-enter corporate worship.
