

THE CHARGE IS THIS

We do not determine the time we were born nor the family we were born into. By nature we do not belong to the people of God; faith is not hereditary. Yet God's electing love overrules our heritage and our history. Through His sovereign grace, the Father draws people like us to be part of His church, the new Israel that He is creating through His Son. The Lord is indeed great beyond the borders of Israel. He builds His church even at the gates of hell, gates which cannot prevail because His enemies always undo themselves. Their foot will slip in due time. Christian, how do you know that God loves you? He has called you to take part in rebuilding from the ruins.

Malachi 1:6-14

Keach's Catechism: Q. 50

Q. What does the preface to the Ten Commandments teach us?

A. The preface to the Ten Commandments teaches us, that because God is the Lord, and our God and Redeemer, therefore we are bound to keep all His commandments. (Deut 11:1)

We practice Covenant Renewal Worship.

Call to Worship: God calls His people out of the world to gather in worship of Him.

Confession: God reminds us of our duty to Him and forgives us where we have sinned.

Consecration: God trains us for holiness and service through instruction by His Word.

Communion: God feeds us in order to strengthen us as we go back out into the world.

Commissioning: God gives us our mission as we depart.

At Trinity, we believe children are a gift from God, and we encourage families to see the importance of training them in the worship service. It is an opportunity to learn the songs, vocabulary, and rhythm of worship from young on.
