

THE CHARGE IS THIS

"The testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple," (Ps 19:7) In a militantly ignorant world (Rm 1:18) we need all the help we can get to wise up. And God's law is given to serve as our school master (Gal 4:2). Unfortunately, we tend to see it from only one side. But the Law of God has two sides, for every "no!" there is an implied, "yes!"; and for every "yes!" there is an implied, "no!" The "no" is summarized in 1 Timothy 1:8-10, and the "yes" is summarized in Matthew 22:36-40. When you see both sides, the Law makes you joyful because it keeps you out of trouble and it gives you a purpose to pursue with all your heart. So, go: don't sin; instead, enjoy God!"

Keach's Catechism: Q. 60

Q. What is forbidden in the third commandment?

A. The third commandment forbiddeth all profaning and abusing of any thing whereby God makes himself known (Mal. 1:6, 7, 12; 2:2; 3:14).

We practice Covenant Renewal Worship.

Call to Worship: God calls His people out of the world to gather in worship of Him.

Confession: God reminds us of our duty to Him and forgives us where we have sinned.

Consecration: God trains us for holiness and service through instruction by His Word.

Communion: God feeds us in order to strengthen us as we go back out into the world.

Commissioning: God gives us our mission as we depart.

At Trinity, we believe children are a gift from God, and we encourage families to see the importance of training them in the worship service. It is an opportunity to learn the music, vocabulary, and rhythm of worship from young on. For those times that children are especially disruptive, we have a nursery at the back that can be used until they are ready to re-enter corporate worship.

Third Week of Advent

The Joy Candle, also known as the Shepherd's Candle, represents the joy of Christ's coming and the celebration of His birth. The pink color reflects a shift from repentance to joy as we draw closer to Christmas.
