

THE CHARGE IS THIS

“I could not say to you, “Pray,” not even to you saints, unless it were a throne of grace, much less could I talk of prayer to you sinners; but now I will say this to every sinner here, though he should think himself to be the worst sinner that ever lived, cry unto the Lord and seek Him while He may be found. A throne of grace is a place fitted for you; go to your knees, by simple faith go to your Saviour, for He, He it is who is the throne of grace. (C.H. Spurgeon)”

Hebrews 5:1-6

Keach's Catechism: Q. 71

Q. What is forbidden in the fifth commandment?

A. The fifth commandment forbids the neglecting of, or doing anything against the honor and duty which belongs to every one in their several places and relations.

We practice Covenant Renewal Worship.

Call to Worship: God calls His people out of the world to gather in worship of Him.

Confession: God reminds us of our duty to Him and forgives us where we have sinned.

Consecration: God trains us for holiness and service through instruction by His Word.

Communion: God feeds us in order to strengthen us as we go back out into the world.

Commissioning: God gives us our mission as we depart.

At Trinity, we believe children are a gift from God, and we encourage families to see the importance of training them to participate in the worship service. It is an opportunity to learn the music, vocabulary, and rhythm of worship from young on. For those times that children are especially disruptive, we have a family/handicapped bathroom and kitchen that can both be used as a cry room, as well as a nursing room (mothers only) that can be used until they are ready to re-enter corporate worship.
