

THE CHARGE IS THIS

We are urged to press forward to the goal of blissful rest and unbroken fellowship with the Lord. The final perfect rest has already been accomplished by our older brother Jesus as He paved the way for us. We continue to toil as we follow after Him, happily anticipating our final rest at the glorious consummation of all things. For now, we continue to toil through tears, through sin, and through opposition. But if we persevere with eyes uplifted to heaven, trusting in our Older Brother to lead us to the Father, asking Him to find pleasure in our meager efforts, then we can already enjoy a taste of the eternal rest as we labour and press ahead.

Keach's Catechism: Q. 68

Q. What is required in the fifth commandment?

A. The fifth commandment requires the preserving the honor and performing the duties belonging to every one in their several places and relations, as superiors, (Ex. 20:12) inferiors, (1 Pet. 2:17) or equals. (Rom. 12:10)

We practice Covenant Renewal Worship.

Call to Worship: God calls His people out of the world to gather in worship of Him.

Confession: God reminds us of our duty to Him and forgives us where we have sinned.

Consecration: God trains us for holiness and service through instruction by His Word.

Communion: God feeds us in order to strengthen us as we go back out into the world.

Commissioning: God gives us our mission as we depart.

At Trinity, we believe children are a gift from God, and we encourage families to see the importance of training them to participate in the worship service. It is an opportunity to learn the music, vocabulary, and rhythm of worship from young on. For those times that children are especially disruptive, we have a family/handicapped bathroom and kitchen that can both be used as a cry room, as well as a nursing room (mothers only) that can be used until they are ready to re-enter corporate worship.
