

THE CHARGE IS THIS

For true worship to happen, two things are required; revelation and response. God in his goodness has given everyone the gift of general revelation. The way we see order, beauty, and consistency in the world points to an intelligent and omnipotent Creator whose sovereign hand is orchestrating even the smallest details. Thus, all creation declares his glory and is constantly pointing towards its Maker. Though creation has the ability to inform a person, it is incapable of transformation. Thankfully, God has given us a special revelation by the Spirit. A word of truth that brings life to the believer and gives us spiritual sight. The all-sufficient Scriptures revive, convict, edify, and equip the Christian for life in this world. However, the gift of revelation requires a response. There are those who will suppress the truth, blinding their own eyes and covering their ears from the truth as the hardness of their hearts prevents them from believing. But may the believer not grow discouraged, but overflow in thanksgiving and worship to the Lord. May we be moved to the same response as the Psalmist, seeking to be renewed by the Word and offer up our lives as a living and acceptable sacrifice in worship to the only One who is worthy.

The Baptist Catechism: Q2

Q: Ought every one to believe there is a God?

A: Everyone ought to believe there is a God (Heb. 11:6); and it is their great sin and folly who do not (Ps. 14:1).

We practice Covenant Renewal Worship.

Call to Worship: God calls His people out of the world to gather in worship of Him.

Confession: God reminds us of our duty to Him and forgives us where we have sinned.

Consecration: God trains us for holiness and service through instruction by His Word.

Communion: God feeds us in order to strengthen us as we go back out into the world.

Commissioning: God gives us our mission as we depart.

At Trinity, we believe children are a gift from God, and we encourage families to see the importance of training them in the worship service. It is an opportunity to learn the songs, vocabulary, and rhythm of worship from young on. We do have a nursery room for those times when these little ones become especially upset and their parents need to temporarily remove them from the worship service.
