

THE CHARGE IS THIS

David is able to appeal to God on the basis of his righteousness. This is not the righteousness imputed to him by Christ, nor is it a kind of manufactured self-righteousness. This is the righteousness that permeated David's way of living after God has declared him righteous. When heaven declares something, it must necessarily play out on earth. The Lord makes David blameless and equips him with strength (v.32) so that his feet do not slip (v.36). The Lord trains David's hands for war (v.35) so that he overtakes his enemies until they are consumed (v.37). God's will is to be done on earth as it is in heaven, which means that we too need to live according to the righteousness which God has gifted us. This is the cultural mandate which starts in the garden, is strengthened in the Great Commission, and which carries on until Christ returns to fully consummate this mission. The charge then, in our lives, in our families, in our church, and in our society is to visibly display the righteousness of God. May our speech, our spending, and our use of time all be used in this-worldly ways to reflect the holiness of the Triune God.

New City Catechism Question #42

Q: How is the Word of God to read and heard?

A: With diligence, preparation, and prayer; so that we may accept it with faith, store it in our hearts, and practice it in our lives.

Next Week's Text: Psalm 19

We practice Covenant Renewal Worship.

Call to Worship: God calls His people out of the world to gather in worship of Him.

Confession: God reminds us of our duty to Him and forgives us where we have sinned.

Consecration: God trains us for holiness and service through instruction by His Word.

Communion: God feeds us in order to strengthen us as we go back out into the world.

Commissioning: God gives us our mission as we depart.

At Trinity, we believe children are a gift from God, and we encourage families to see the importance of training them in the worship service. It is an opportunity to learn the songs, vocabulary, and rhythm of worship from young on. We do have a nursery room for those times when these little ones become especially upset and their parents need to temporarily remove them from the worship service.
