

THE CHARGE IS THIS

We've been reminded today that we are all little ones in God's pasture. We are all there by grace and not by merit. There is no room for pride or vanity among the people of God, as even the angels and their mission remind us. The sheep may struggle and go astray, which is why shepherds are given to pursue and bring back. Part of their work involves temporarily leaving the ninety nine to pursue the one, but the mission is always rescue and restoration. We are all sheep in God's pasture, and many of us are also shepherds in some capacity or another, so the charge is this – if you are a struggling sheep, call for help. Have the humility to receive. If you are a shepherd, be on the lookout for the struggling sheep, and pursue them. All of this happens under the care of the Great Shepherd, and He is happy to supply us with the humility to call, and with the perseverance to pursue and rescue. He wills that none of His little ones should perish.

New City Catechism Question #27

Q: Are all people, just as they were lost through Adam saved through Christ?

A: No, only those who are elected by God are united to Christ by faith. Nevertheless God in his mercy demonstrates common grace even to those who are not elect, by restraining the effects of sin and enabling works of culture for human well-being.

Next Week's Text: Romans 5:12-21

We practice Covenant Renewal Worship.

Call to Worship: God calls His people out of the world to gather in worship of Him.

Confession: God reminds us of our duty to Him and forgives us where we have sinned.

Consecration: God trains us for holiness and service through instruction by His Word.

Communion: God feeds us in order to strengthen us as we go back out into the world.

Commissioning: God gives us our mission as we depart.

At Trinity, we believe children are a gift from God, and we encourage families to see the importance of training them in the worship service. It is an opportunity to learn the songs, vocabulary, and rhythm of worship from young on. We do have a nursery room for those times when these little ones become especially upset and their parents need to temporarily remove them from the worship service.
