

THE CHARGE IS THIS

To be Baptist is to be invested in the health of the local church. Baptist life is marked by a robust congregationalism as well as an emphasis on believers baptism being grounded in the nature of the new covenant. Neither of these things guarantee perfect outcomes, but congregationalism and believer's baptism are designed to safeguard the peace and purity of the church. Governance at the local church level ensures an agility to adjust as needed, and to protect the church from top-down directives that may not be in the best interest in the spiritual health of her members. Believer's baptism acknowledges that the new covenant is a better covenant with a perfect Mediator. No longer are the covenant people of God a mixed multitude of believers and unbelievers who are marked by ancestry, but they are a royal priesthood of those who have been regenerated by the Spirit of God and who have been purchased by the blood of Christ. Our charge is to press into these practices, and for each one of us to be intentional about the peace and purity of Trinity Fellowship, a biblical, evangelical and Reformed Baptist church.

Next Week’s Text: Hebrews 12 - “What is ‘Covenant Renewal Worship’?”

We practice Covenant Renewal Worship.

Call to Worship: God calls His people out of the world to gather in worship of Him.

Confession: God reminds us of our duty to Him and forgives us where we have sinned.

Consecration: God trains us for holiness and service through instruction by His Word.

Communion: God feeds us in order to strengthen us as we go back out into the world.

Commissioning: God gives us our mission as we depart.

At Trinity, we believe children are a gift from God, and we encourage families to see the importance of training them in the worship service. It is an opportunity to learn the songs, vocabulary, and rhythm of worship from young on. We do have a nursery room for those times when these little ones become especially upset and their parents need to temporarily remove them from the worship service.
