

THE CHARGE IS THIS

The worship of the living God is a long war for the cosmos. Every Lord's Day morning the future of the world is being determined by how God's people approach the heavenly city. God continues to shake the earth until His kingdom is all that remains. Every Lord's Day we participate in this shaking by besieging the gates of Hades in song, prayer, and the preaching of God's Word. This is a joyful yet solemn task. Our worship is to be both alive and disciplined. Our hearts and heads must both be engaged in an intentional manner that refuses to treat the Lord's service like a junk drawer filled with random elements. Rather, it is to faithfully reflect the patterns and rhythms found all through the Scriptures whenever God keeps covenant with His people. So, the charge is this, see to it that you are intentional about the worship of the living God, in the daily pattern of family worship, and in the calendar-defining event of corporate Sunday worship.

New City Catechism Question #50

Q: What does Christ's resurrection mean for us?

A: Christ triumphed over sin and death by being physically resurrected, so that all who trust in him are raised to new life in this world and to everlasting life in the world to come. Just as we will one day be resurrected, so this world will one day be restored. But those who do not trust in Christ will be raised to everlasting death.

Next Week's Text: Matthew 21:18-22

We practice Covenant Renewal Worship.

Call to Worship: God calls His people out of the world to gather in worship of Him.

Confession: God reminds us of our duty to Him and forgives us where we have sinned.

Consecration: God trains us for holiness and service through instruction by His Word.

Communion: God feeds us in order to strengthen us as we go back out into the world.

Commissioning: God gives us our mission as we depart.

At Trinity, we believe children are a gift from God, and we encourage families to see the importance of training them in the worship service. It is an opportunity to learn the songs, vocabulary, and rhythm of worship from young on. We do have a nursery room for those times when these little ones become especially upset and their parents need to temporarily remove them from the worship service.
