

THE CHARGE IS THIS

Consider the source of your salvation and your assurance. If our salvation were a cooperative effort between God and man, how could this provide a strong encouragement? Salvation and its assurance would be reduced to “You will not be lost if you... If God’s promises depended on us, we are without any consolation at all. What we think we have today may vanish tomorrow. Even the chain of salvation is only as strong as its weakest link. Are you one of those links? We can find great comfort in the fact that we are not. Each link is unbreakable because God’s promise is unbreakable. Each one is guarded by God’s unchanging character, His eternal decree, and His solemn oath. So, look away from yourself. Look away from your heart, from your sins, from your trials, and from your doubts. Look to the High Priest who has once-for-all entered the Most Holy Place and has secured your sonship with the Father.

Q. What is forbidden in the seventh commandment?

A. The seventh commandment forbids all unchaste thoughts, words, and actions.
(Matt. 5:28; 15:19; Eph. 5:3-4)

We practice Covenant Renewal Worship.

Call to Worship: God calls His people out of the world to gather in worship of Him.

Confession: God reminds us of our duty to Him and forgives us where we have sinned.

Consecration: God trains us for holiness and service through instruction by His Word.

Communion: God feeds us in order to strengthen us as we go back out into the world.

Commissioning: God gives us our mission as we depart.

At Trinity, we believe children are a gift from God, and we encourage families to see the importance of training them to participate in the worship service. It is an opportunity to learn the music, vocabulary, and rhythm of worship from young on. For those times that children are especially disruptive, we have a family/handicapped bathroom and kitchen that can both be used as a cry room, as well as a nursing room (mothers only) that can be used until they are ready to re-enter corporate worship.
