

THE CHARGE IS THIS

Brothers and sisters, are you ever overwhelmed by the blessings that God has poured out upon you? Do you ever look at the life God has given you, and stop in wonder, and gratitude at the grace of God to you? Or do your troubles and reasons for discontentment dominate your thought life? Would you dare say to God that all your blessings are as nothing in comparison to this trial you are facing? That although He's given you so much, you are unable to be happy, or grateful, because you lack this one thing... the resolution of this trial right now? This one little difficulty is enough to steal your joy... Discipline your minds. Discipline your thoughts. Cut off the grumbling. Cut off the murmuring. Memorize Psalm 23. Preach to yourself about the goodness of your shepherd. The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

The Baptist Catechism Question 83

Q. What is forbidden in the ninth commandment?

A. The ninth commandment forbids whatsoever is prejudicial to the truth, or injurious to our own or our neighbor's good name. (Lev. 19:16; 1 Sam. 17:28; Psa. 15:3)

We practice Covenant Renewal Worship.

Call to Worship: God calls His people out of the world to gather in worship of Him.

Confession: God reminds us of our duty to Him and forgives us where we have sinned.

Consecration: God trains us for holiness and service through instruction by His Word.

Communion: God feeds us in order to strengthen us as we go back out into the world.

Commissioning: God gives us our mission as we depart.

At Trinity, we believe children are a gift from God, and we encourage families to see the importance of training them in the worship service. It is an opportunity to learn the music, vocabulary, and rhythm of worship from young on. For those times that children are especially disruptive, we have a nursery at the back that can be used until they are ready to re-enter corporate worship.
