

THE CHARGE IS THIS

The physical features of the tabernacle, and by extension, the temple, have given God's people a glimpse into how the world is structured and into how redemptive history unfolds. The second curtain has hidden the second section; the Most Holy Place, for many years, reminding us both that God desires fellowship with His people, but that the time has not yet come. The cherubim are still blocking access to God. In Christ, this curtain is torn from top to bottom, showing us that we have not ascended to God, but that He has come down to us. The Most Holy Place is now open so that God and man, heaven and earth, the garden and the world can be reunited. The thunder and dread from the Holy of Holies has been satisfied and silenced by the Priest-King who gave His life as a sacrifice. The time of reformation is now here. Lay down your self-righteousness, your fig leaves, your curtain that you hide behind, and enter into the rest that God is freely offering.

The Baptist Catechism Question 84

Q. What is the tenth commandment?

A. The tenth commandment is, "You shall not covet your neighbor's house; you shalt not covet your neighbor's wife, or his male servant, or his female servant, or his ox, or his donkey, or anything that is your neighbor's." (Ex. 20:17)

We practice Covenant Renewal Worship.

Call to Worship: God calls His people out of the world to gather in worship of Him.

Confession: God reminds us of our duty to Him and forgives us where we have sinned.

Consecration: God trains us for holiness and service through instruction by His Word.

Communion: God feeds us in order to strengthen us as we go back out into the world.

Commissioning: God gives us our mission as we depart.

At Trinity, we believe children are a gift from God, and we encourage families to see the importance of training them in the worship service. It is an opportunity to learn the music, vocabulary, and rhythm of worship from young on. For those times that children are especially disruptive, we have a nursery at the back that can be used until they are ready to re-enter corporate worship.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to Hades.
The third day he rose again from the dead.
He ascended to heaven
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty.
From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.
