To Our Backstage Moms:

Thank you to the real MVPs behind the curtain—the ponytail pros, bobby-pin ninjas, costume detectives, shoe wranglers, line-up enforcers, and calm voices in total chaos. You’ve survived quick changes, nervous dancers, missing tights, and “where’s my other shoe?!” moments with grace, humor, and a whole lot of love. This show quite literally could not happen without you. We are endlessly grateful for your time, your patience, and your willingness to jump in wherever (and whenever) needed.

You are the magic behind the magic.

To Our Incredible Dance Families:

Behind every bow on this stage is a parent who believed, showed up, and never stopped cheering. Thank you for the endless practices, costume chaos, and for loving these dancers through every triumph and tough day. Your sacrifice, patience, and support are the real magic that made this season shine. We are beyond grateful to be trusted with your children and honored to share in their growth, confidence, and joy. Today's performance is wrapped in glitter but it's powered by your love.
