

Joe Montana Fights off Would-be Kidnapper

Sodsai Dalzell is being charged with burglary and kidnapping after attempting to abduct the grandchild of N-F-L Legend, Joe Montana.

Montana, and his wife Jennifer had to confront Dalzell on Saturday who aimed at taking their 9-month old grandchild.

Dalzell entered the Montana's home in Malibu, California, and removed the child from a playpen. The couple stopped her, and attempted to de-escalate the situation, but were forced to pry the child out of Dalzell's arms.

Dalzell fled the Montana home and was soon apprehended by Sheriff's deputies.

Montana took to twitter to make a public statement: "Thank you to everyone who has reached out. Scary situation, but thankful that everybody is doing well. We appreciate respect for our privacy at this time."
