

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

MOSS BAY HALL: DAY 1

9:00am	Registration and Check In
9:25am	A Brief History of Building Science - Ben Bogie
10:30am	Control Layers In Action (Water and Air) - Steve Baczek
11:35am	Control Layers In Action (Vapor and Thermal) - Steve Baczek
12:25pm	Lunch at Moss Bay Hall
1:25pm	Airsealing Strategies for Passive Performance - Shaun St-Amour
2:30pm	Rainscreen Details for Enhanced Durability - Jake Bruton
3:35pm	Which Windows Where & Why - Shaun St-Amour
4:40pm	Addressing the Openings in the Field - Jake Bruton
5:30pm	Happy Hour - Networking
6:00pm	Roundtable Discussion over Dinner with todays speakers and Patrick McCombe of Fine Homebuilding

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON MOSS BAY HALL: DAY 2

9:00am	Educating Your Client - Jake Bruton
10:00am	Mechanicals for High Performance Envelopes - Ben Bogie
11:00am	Construction Drawing: Our Language - Steve Baczek
11:45am	Lunch at Moss Bay Hall
12:45pm	L over BS: Structural Priorities and Integration - Tim Uhler
1:45pm	Use This for That: Selecting Solutions - Ben Bogie
2:45pm	The Control Layers of Conditioned Crawlspaces - Bryan Uhler
3:45pm	Top Ten Concepts in Building Science - Bailey Brown and RDH
5:00pm	Parting Happy Hour

Please note that schedules and speakers are subject to change. All proceeds will be donated to support skilled trades education and are therefore nonrefundable.