

FAMILY

OR OPERA ROANOKE

2024 - 2025 Season
A Family Affair

Ticket Information

BOX OFFICE HOURS: MONDAY-THURSDAY 10AM-2PM

540-982-ARIA (2742)

OPERAROANOKE.ORG

IN PERSON: 20 CHURCH AVE. SE, 3RD FLOOR, ROANOKE, VA 24011

Single Tickets

Rear Orchestra/Rear Balcony	$23
Side Orchestra/Side Balcony	$45
Center Orchestra	$70
2nd Row Loge	$90
Front Balcony/1st Row Loge	$132

Subscription Pricing

2 SHOWS - 15% DISCOUNT - BEFORE JUNE 30 (Does not include Rear sections)

Rear Orchestra/Rear Balcony	$46
Side Orchestra/Side Balcony	$77
Center Orchestra	$119
2nd Row Loge	$153
Front Balcony/1st Row Loge	$224

2 SHOWS - 10% DISCOUNT - AFTER JUNE 30 (Does not include Rear sections)

Rear Orchestra/Rear Balcony	$46
Side Orchestra/Side Balcony	$81
Center Orchestra	$126
2nd Row Loge	$162
Front Balcony/1st Row Loge	$238

Additional Discounts

STUDENTS: 50% discount at any ticket level

GROUP TICKETS: 20% discount on groups of 10 or more

Thank you to our Sponsors

Anderson,
Desimone
& Green, P.C.

LEISURE
MEDIA 360
ENGAGING CONTENT • INTEGRATED CONNECTIONS

Family Ghosts

The Turn of the Screw

SEPT. 20, 7:30PM, JEFFERSON CENTER
SEPT. 22, 2:30PM, MOSS ARTS CENTER
BENJAMIN BRITTEN
SUNG IN ENGLISH
1 HOUR 40 MINUTES

In this operatic adaptation of Henry James' 1898 spine-tingling novella, a young governess is hired to care for Miles and Flora, two orphaned children with an unsettled upbringing. Upon arrival at the remote English estate, the governess is met with the mysterious presence of two ghosts whom she believes are influencing the children. As the lines begin to blur between reality and the supernatural, she embarks on a mission to protect them from these sinister forces that ultimately end in tragedy.

A master of the "theme and variations" compositional technique, Benjamin Britten builds suspense throughout with the use of a single motif (musical theme), creating a chilling atmosphere that will keep you on the edge of your seat. You'll be left questioning your own interpretation of the opera's haunting conclusion. Enter the world of Bly manor...if you dare!

Family Feuds

Gianni Schicchi

MARCH 14, 7:30PM, JEFFERSON CENTER

MARCH 16, 2:30PM, JEFFERSON CENTER

GIACOMO PUCCINI

SUNG IN ITALIAN WITH PROJECTED ENGLISH TRANSLATIONS

2 HOURS INCLUDING INTERMISSION

In Puccini's only comedic opera, the cunning and resourceful Gianni Schicchi is sought out by the Donati family to alter the will of their deceased patriarch, Buoso. Schicchi, seizing the opportunity to outwit the greedy relatives, devises a clever scheme that not only benefits himself but also ensures justice prevails.

Puccini's masterpiece unfolds with a dynamic score that captures the essence of each character's personality, from Schicchi's cunning wit to the Donati family's comical greed. Filled with humor, deception, and a touch of romance, "Gianni Schicchi" delights audiences with its irresistible charm and timeless melodies, making it a beloved classic in the world of opera and a truly unforgettable opera experience.

Family Harmony

Americans in Paris: A recital with Danielle Talamantes, soprano and Kerry Wilkerson, bass-baritone

FEBRUARY 16, 3:00PM
RALEIGH COURT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Soprano, Danielle Talamantes and Bass-baritone, Kerry Wilkerson are thrilled to present an all-American program of vocal selections featuring selections from Copland's iconic Old American Songs, original compositions written especially for their voices as well as cherished gems of the musical theater and American Songbook canon.

A prolific and versatile vocal artist, Metropolitan Opera Soprano, Danielle Talamantes can not only be found on the operatic stage but in the concert hall, and recital salon. Recently retired from the US Army Chorus after 29 years of musical service to our nation, Kerry Wilkerson has been described by the Washington Post as an "exuberant" performer with a "unique evenness in register".

Save the Date

Savor the Sound

THURSDAY, AUGUST 22
7:00 - 9:00PM
STONE BROOK VINEYARDS
TROUTVILLE, VA

Mark your calendars now for a fun evening of wine and song to support Opera Roanoke's Young Artist program. Our ever-popular wine and opera pairing concert will feature our young artists singing songs of the season against a backdrop of lush green hills and a dreamy sunset.

Bravo!

OPERAROANOKE.ORG