Dear Folks,

Welcome to the second newsletter of Horace Mewborn's collection.

You appreciated Horace's books; purchasing 75% of the books offered in Newsletter 508 offering Horace's books; an unusually high sell rate in this day and time. Horace thanks you for embracing his legacy. He had no children or brothers and sisters; truly his books are his legacy. Reckon I could tout them as bibliographic orphans who need to be adopted and nourished by fellow book lovers; that might be taking it a bit far; but then again – you – we – Horace – are a different breed of creature.

As I noted in the first offering of Horace's books – Horace's books are among the top 3 collections, both in content and condition that I have catalogued in 51 years and I've sold over 400 collections.

Horace searched for every book he could find on the Civil War in North Carolina. His gathering is the best we've ever seen in 51 years – in 51 years – both in scope and quality. To better illustrate his North Carolina books, we have coded them (NC) before the price.

Enjoy and appreciate and thank Horace.

Tom Broadfoot

March 28 STORE SALE is cancelled

The Store Sale is cancelled; dozens of people jostling for position in an 8-foot wide aisle isn't a good idea at this time.

We will reschedule the store sale – will keep you posted.

** For now the Wendell store will be open the usual hours: Wednesday and Friday 9 – 3. There is seldom more than one person at a time in the store – in a 40' x 60' building this shouldn't be a problem – but – no groups of 5 or more please.

Horace Mewborn

Horace Hardy Mewborn Jr. died at his home on 14 December 2019.

He was born on the 7th day of May, 1941, to Horace Mewborn and his wife, Mary Elizabeth Dail Mewborn, in Kinston, North Carolina. He graduated from Grainger High School in 1959 and Campbell College in 1963. In 1965, he enlisted in the United States Army. He was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the United States infantry upon graduation from OCS at Fort Banning, GA in September of 1966. From there he went to US Army Airborne School, Special Forces School, Language School and Ranger School from which he earned his Ranger Tab. He served two and one-half tours in the Republic of South Vietnam as part of the Fifth Special Forces Group Mike Force. There he was awarded his Combat Infantryman's Badge, Purple Heart, Bronze Star, Senior Parachutist's Badge and other awards from the South Vietnam Government and was promoted to Captain. While on his last tour in the Republic of South Vietnam, he was assigned as the personal escort for Lieutenant Colonel Martha Raye (Maggie, as she was known among members of the Fifth Special Forces Group) with whom he formed a life-long friendship, often visiting her in Hollywood. After serving seven years on active duty, he obtained a degree in accounting from East Carolina University, and then was selected by the Federal Bureau of Investigation to attend their academy in Quantico, VA. After graduating from the Academy, he was assigned to a field office in New York City and later to headquarters in Washington, DC. He was an early member of the Hostage Rescue Team (HRT) going all over the United States on assignments during his tenure. He was subsequently assigned to the FBI Headquarters Office as section chief of the Domestic Terrorism Branch. He retired to New Bern, NC, in 1990. There, he continued his love and study of the War of Northern Aggression, writing several books on John S. Mosby and other topics about the conflict. If Horace was out of New Bern, most often you could find him in Washington, DC, at the National Archives during research. He was often asked to give talks to Civil War Roundtables and was acknowledged as an expert on the campaigns and raids conducted by Mosby during the war. He was instrumental in getting the Civil War Roundtable started in New Bern and the preservation of the New Bern Civil War Battlefield.

Horace had many friends with whom he hiked the trails of North Carolina and Virginia in the Fall and canoed the rivers. No better time was had sitting around the campfire with friends, swapping lies and war stories, and trying to keep him awake until dark. Horace was a true friend and will be greatly missed by those with whom he shared his interesting life. Horace did not boast or exalt his achievements, but instead, quietly went about being an unassuming friend to many.

Rest in peace, our friend, rest in peace.

Selling Your Collection? We BUY Books

With over 50 years of experience in buying and selling out-of-print and rare Civil War material, we have the knowledge and ability to handle any size collection expeditiously and competently. We wrote the Price Guide for Civil War Books, now in its 5th edition, have issued over 500 catalogues, and are able to realize high prices for Civil War material. So . . . if you will be selling your collection, or if someone else will be selling your collection, keep us in mind.

- Broadfoot's: Over 50 years of selling Civil War books full time—more than 500 catalogs. We have sold many of the better collections offered in recent years including: Richard Harwell, Bell Wiley, Bob White, Lee Wallace, Cary Close, Robert Sommerfield, The Late Unpleasantness. In addition to individual collections, we have purchased the Civil War stock of D. A. Bulen, Lost Generation Bookshop, Gitmans, McCowat Mercer, Continental Book Company, Morningside, etc. With Broadfoot's, you're in good company. References provided—better yet, ask around.
- No shipping or packing. Our competent people will pack your books, load them, and move them from your door to our store in our vehicle. Your books are in good hands all the way.
- No need to make a listing of the material. A complete listing of the collection is made listing each item valued at $100+ individually with a description and price. We don't buy on consignment—we purchase outright. If and when the books sell is our concern, not yours.
- At no charge to you, we will clean your books as needed, make repairs as needed, fit the better books with acid-free mylar dust jackets and place pamphlets and fragile material in protective folding slipcases. These extras insure that your titles are protected and preserved, plus add substantial value to your collection at no cost to you.
- We can handle any size collection, though the average purchase is in the $15,000-$75,000 range. Most people, even veteran collectors, are surprised at the high value of their collections. Invariably a collection of quality books purchased five or more years ago realizes more to the seller or his estate than the original purchase price of the books. Quite a few Civil War collectors have advance purchase agreements with us. If you have a large collection which will someday be sold, we'd like to hear from you.

GIVE US A CALL and we'll send you our free 20-page booklet entitled
"Your Collection of Civil War Books/Manuscripts. Selling, Auctioning, Gifting? Someday?"
