Out of Print and Rare – June 2019

STORE SALE – July 20 – 10 to 2

Offering more books from the 8,000 books we recently purchased. One collection of 4,000 books – 1950's to present is condition-wise the best collection we've ever purchased – books seeming unopened, not faded, never exposed to light, no signatures, bookplates or notes, jackets in Gaylord acid-free protectors. Come one come all. We'll also be offering out of print and rare books.

WENDELL STORE

Normally Wednesdays and Fridays 9-3 but summer hours can be irregular. So before coming please call Jean, the Wendell Store manager, 919-604-4519 to make sure the store will be open. Thanks.

Thinking of SELLING Your COLLECTION?

Give us a call. We've purchased over 500 collections in the past 50 years.

If we buy your collection, we come to your location, pack the books and transport them to our office.

So – how long does that take? A few weeks ago my son and help packed 4,000 books, moved them from the second story to our truck in 4 hours – 1000 books an hour; carefully and well packed.

Give us a call.

PS Better sooner than later; we won't be buying books forever.

Selling Your Collection? We BUY Books

With over 50 years of experience in buying and selling out-of-print and rare Civil War material, we have the knowledge and ability to handle any size collection expeditiously and competently. We wrote the Price Guide for Civil War Books, now in its 5th edition, have issued over 500 catalogues, and are able to realize high prices for Civil War material. So . . . if you will be selling your collection, or if someone else will be selling your collection, keep us in mind.

- Broadfoot's: Over 50 years of selling Civil War books full time—more than 500 catalogs. We have sold many of the better collections offered in recent years including: Richard Harwell, Bell Wiley, Bob White, Lee Wallace, Cary Close, Robert Sommerfield, The Late Unpleasantness. In addition to individual collections, we have purchased the Civil War stock of D. A. Bulen, Lost Generation Bookshop, Gitmans, McCowat Mercer, Continental Book Company, Morningside, etc. With Broadfoot's, you're in good company. References provided—better yet, ask around.
- No shipping or packing. Our competent people will pack your books, load them, and move them from your door to our store in our vehicle. Your books are in good hands all the way.
- No need to make a listing of the material. A complete listing of the collection is made listing each item valued at $100+ individually with a description and price. We don't buy on consignment—we purchase outright. If and when the books sell is our concern, not yours.
- At no charge to you, we will clean your books as needed, make repairs as needed, fit the better books with acid-free mylar dust jackets and place pamphlets and fragile material in protective folding slipcases. These extras insure that your titles are protected and preserved, plus add substantial value to your collection at no cost to you.
- We can handle any size collection, though the average purchase is in the $15,000-$75,000 range. Most people, even veteran collectors, are surprised at the high value of their collections. Invariably a collection of quality books purchased five or more years ago realizes more to the seller or his estate than the original purchase price of the books. Quite a few Civil War collectors have advance purchase agreements with us. If you have a large collection which will someday be sold, we'd like to hear from you.

GIVE US A CALL and we'll send you our free 20-page booklet entitled
"Your Collection of Civil War Books/Manuscripts. Selling, Auctioning, Gifting? Someday?"

NEXT Store Sale July 20

Last weekend we had a Store Sale offering the first part of a 4,000 volume collection we recently purchased; books in the best condition we've ever seen. THANK YOU!

The sale broke records for attendance and purchases.

You appreciate these books.

A second Store Sale offering more books from this collection will be held July 20.

Nuff said.

See you there.

Mustered out October 21, 1862 to become Lt.Col. of the 142nd NYI. Mustered in as Lt.Col. 142nd NYI 22 Oct. 1862. Colonel, 142nd NYI 21 Jan. 1863. Brig. Gen. U.S.V. 24 Jan. 1865. Awarded the Medal of Honor on November 28, 1891 for bravery during the battle for Ft. Fisher, North Carolina on January 15, 1865 as “the first man to pass through the stockade, he personally led each assault on the traverses and was 4 times wounded.” First edition, a fine tight bright copy, corners scuffed, above average. Protected by a clear acid-free mylar dust jacket. $125.00

15. Dickerson, Edward N. THE NAVY OF THE UNITED STATES, AN EXPOSURE OF ITS CONDITION, AND THE CAUSES OF ITS FAILURE, Contained in a Speech Delivered to a Jury in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, Before Chief-Justice Carter by Edward N. Dickerson, of New-York, in the Case of Mattingly vs. The Washington and Alexandria Steamboat Company. New York 1864. 80 pages. Wraps. First edition, interior tight, even foxing, wraps soiled. Protected by a clear acid-free mylar sleeve with white acid-free backing sheet. $100.00

16. Dornbusch, Charles E., edited by MILITARY BIBLIOGRAPHY OF THE CIVIL WAR. 4 vols. New York & Ohio 1972-1987. Various editions, a matched set, good condition. Protected by clear acid-free mylar dust jackets. $125.00

- SOLD Douglas, Lucia Rutherford DOUGLAS'S TEXAS BATTERY, CSA. Tyler, Texas 1966. 238 pages. First edition, a fine copy in a fine dust jacket. The best copy we've offered in 50 years. Protected by a clear acid-free mylar dust jacket. $100.00

18. Foote, Shelby THE CIVIL WAR: A NARRATIVE. 3 volumes. New York, NY 1958-74. Dornbusch III-1388, IV-12548, 12549. Maps scattered within the text, colored endpaper maps. “...this panoramic military study is written in a sweeping style.” – Civil War Books. All volumes are first editions, in dust jackets, Volume 1 and 2 are first printings and so stated on copyright page, Volume 1 jacket is toned and frayed at margins, volume 2 jacket is toned, books fine. Protected by clear acid-free mylar dust jackets. $400.00

- SOLD Ford, John Salmon RIP FORD'S TEXAS. Austin 1963. 519 pages. First edition, fine in dust jacket, jacket has minor wear to outer edges. The best copy we've offered in 50 years. Protected by a clear acid-free mylar dust jacket. $125.00

20. Fox, Gustavus Vasa CONFIDENTIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF GUSTAVUS VASA FOX, Assistant Secretary of the Navy During the Civil War 1861-1865, edited by R.M. Thompson & Richard Wainright. 2 volumes. New York Ltd. Boxed 1918-19. Frontis of Fox Volume I, Frontis of Farragut Volume II with a full page portrait of Admiral Porter. A limited numbered edition of 1200 copies. Fox was assistant Secretary of the Navy during entire war. His correspondence begins with the attempted relief of Fort Sumter. Much material on the South Atlantic and west Gulf blockading squadron. Included are letters of L.M. Goldsborough concerning the expedition against Roanoke Island, NC and the campaign in the sounds of NC. “Undocumented letters that reveal a great deal about Union naval operations during the war.” – Civil War Books. A most attractive set of books with a white vellum spines and gray boards stamped in gold. First edition, interiors clean and tight, white vellum, spines darkened as with all sets, the limitation numbers don't match, per usual, in original shipping boxes, which have tape repairs – no big deal – “shipping boxes” are meant to be discarded – versus slip cases. The Naval History Society which published this set jumbled the volumes together and never were able to match up limitation numbers. One time I purchased 100 plus sets and didn't find a single pair of matching volumes. $100.00

39. Ladd, David L. and Audrey J. JOHN BACHELDER'S HISTORY OF THE BATTLE OF GETTYSBURG. Dayton, Ohio 1997. 842 pages. Bachelder was the most important 19th century historian of the Battle of Gettysburg. He arrived on the field soon after the battle and spent the next 23 years talking to veterans of both armies, collecting and organizing their stories, researching reports, and organizing reunions so that monuments could be placed accurately. The War Department contracted with Bachelder for a history of the battle, which he delivered in 1886. The work comprised 2500 pages and was accompanied by excellent maps. It was never published, and languished for over 100 years until publication of this edition, transcribed, edited, and annotated by David L. and Aubrey J. Ladd. First edition, fine in dust jacket, jacket has a tiny tear to upper spine margin. Protected by a clear acid-free mylar dust jacket. $400.00

April 3, 1903

Dear Colonel Sanger:

I venture to send you a copy of my book, "What A Boy Saw in the Army," in view of the reminiscences which it contains of our advance up the Tennessee in Feb – March, 1862 – and especially the account of the Battle of Shiloh. As you are on your way to that field the story may serve to verify the environment! –

Sincerely,

Jesse Bowman Young

CONFEDERATE MILITARY HISTORY

Evans, Clement A. CONFEDERATE MILITARY HISTORY. 12 volumes + 1. Red cloth, first edition with expanded North Carolina volume. Atlanta 1899. Dornbusch II, 1384. In Tall Cotton #54. Full page portraits and maps, some folding. "A still-excellent reference work for the embattled Confederacy; each volume treats of a different state, and each was written by a different Southern notable." – Civil War Books. This set belonged to Lt. Col. Luther M. Davis of Company K, 5th N.C. Regiment. On the front fly of Volume I and Volume VI, Davis's scripted in pencil in a clear hand

"Property of Luther M. Davis, Capt. ___ Co. K 5th NC Regt.
Promoted to Maj. & Lt. Col.
Surrendered July 4, 1818 [?]
San Antonio, Texas
Returned Home, Salisbury, NC
September 5, 1818 [?]

[At the end of the war Davis was serving in the Trans-Mississippi Department. Some discrepancy on dates here but the San Antonio reference may have been the date of his capture in 1865 (not 1818) as he was listed as a POW in San Antonio, Texas until his release August 14, 1865.]

Luther M. Davis's 82-page service record indicates he was a Prisoner of War and paroled in San Antonio, Texas, August 14, 1865. A printed copy of his service record will accompany this set.

Several other volumes have Davis's penciled "L. M. Davis, Rock Hill, S.C. 1900" inscription on the front fly.

Volume IV, North Carolina, has copious and lengthy first-hand battle account notes correcting and adding information on many major battles, Mechanicsville, Malvern Hill, Chancellorsville, and Gettysburg.

Referring to Gettysburg, Davis writes:

"The writer was not with his company having been wounded at Chancellors. But his Lieut. J. C. Irwin was in command who was wounded and captured. No braver troops in the Confederate Army than the 5th N.C. Regt. State Troops. L. M. Davis, Co. K."

"This proved conclusive that Genl. Iverson was a Coward and not at the Front."

In North Carolina volume IV, referring to the events at Mechanicsville, Davis writes:

"Garland ordered the charge and the writer commanded the 5th Regt. After Maj. Sinclair was wounded fired 'on a Penn.,' Regt. charging our Flank. The Col. Fell from his (killed) Horse & the Regt. Retreated. I was promoted for this to 1st Lt. – L.M.D."

In South Carolina volume V, referring to the battles of Seven Pines and Fair Oaks, Davis wrote:

"Col. Jenkins crossed the Williamsburg Road. Just below the Natl. Semetary and charged. I think Sedgwick Corps. The writer was in the 5th Regt. D. H. Hill's Division. We remained on the right of the Williamsburg Road. – L.M. Davis.

*This battle won Col. Jenkins a Brigadier's Commission. He was Killed by our own men through mistake at the Wilderness in 1864."

continued –

12 volumes, plus an additional extended copy of Volume IV, the North Carolina volume which Davis probably purchased for the additional biographical sketches, 459 additional pages.

Uncommon, plus numerous, lengthy and detailed battle descriptions by Lt.Col. Davis who was on the front line in many major battles. Boards waterstained, spines mottled, Davis identified the NC and SC volumes in black ink on the spine, minimal interior evidence of water exposure. A set well used by a North Carolina Confederate. $1,400.00
