17. SOLD Cooke, John Esten STONEWALL JACKSON: A MILITARY BIOGRAPHY. New York 1876. 587 pages. Dornbusch II, CB-2823. Steel engraved frontis of Jackson plus 12 additional steel portraits of Generals, 6 full page and 1 folding map, plus 2 full page wood illustrations. Tissue guards. "An expansion of Cooke's 1863 biography of Jackson, with some new material." – Civil War Books. First edition, interior tight, a few speckles, gold stamping bright, above average. Protected by a clear acid-free mylar dust jacket. $300.00

18. SOLD Cooke, John Esten THE LIFE OF STONEWALL JACKSON...BY A VIRGINIAN. New York 1863. 305 pages plus 6 pages of advertisements for books including Les Miserables. "Spine erroneously attributes authorship to John M. Daniels. Nevins II, p. 47." Dornbusch II, 2821. "The appeal of Stonewall Jackson is evident in the number of good biographies of him, and equally as many poor ones. The earliest of any importance was John Esten Cooke's, published in Richmond in 1863..." – In Tall Cotton. Cooke wrote on May 12, 1863, only a few days after Jackson's death: "I have been incessantly engaged on the 'Life of Stonewall Jackson' having in about a week or ten days, got him through the Battle of Cedar Run. Rarely have I worked so hard." His book was published in Richmond, VA, August 1863 and its publishers sold 3,000 copies on its first day. It was pirated almost immediately in New York (thus this New York imprint) and London and banned by a Federal army order for the Department of Ohio. 20. SOLD Dabney, R. L. LIFE AND CAMPAIGNS OF LIEUT. GEN. THOMAS J. JACKSON. New York, NY 1866. 742 pages. Steel engraved frontis of Jackson in uniform. Dornbusch II, CB-2825. "Written by a member of Jackson's staff, with the help of Jackson's family. Next to Henderson's, his most authoritative biography." – Howes. "Dabney, a Virginia clergyman, wrote this biography at the invitation of Jackson's family, while the work is polemical in its defense of the Southern cause, it contains much primary material" – Nevins. "Dabney's biography belongs near the top of any checklist of Jackson literature." – In Tall Cotton. Pages toned per usual, upper blank margin of title page trimmed, in publishers brown 3/4 leather with marbled boards and endpapers, two black leather labels, ornate gold tooling, boards scuffed and rubbed, withal handsome. Protected by a clear acid-free mylar dust jacket. $200.00

Dornbusch II, VA-1396. In Taller Cotton 115. "Alexander Hunter served in the 17th Virginia Infantry through the spring of 1863, then secured a transfer to the 4th Virginia Cavalry. His book's particular value arises from its extensive discussion of field and camp life of enlisted men. It has received wide use and attention from Civil War students and collectors-perhaps more than its considerable worth warrants. Walter Neale himself was very fond of Hunter and wrote a glowing review of the man and his books in Neale's Monthly for February, 1914." – Krick. "A veracious account of the life of a soldier in Lee's army, highly quoted and highly in demand." – Nevins. First edition, interior tight, some pages wrinkled, tear in dedication page crudely repaired, hinges tightened, spine and rear board water-stained, quite water stained – photo upon request, needs a home – how about $175.
