Thinking of Having a Book Printed? Visit our website or request our brochure about printing to answer your questions.

Dear Folks,

Greetings and Salutations; I hope you're doing well. Welcome to a catalogue with a number of In Tall Cotton titles and Neale Publishing Company titles.

Note: We've received many requests from you to offer books under $100 in our newsletters, especially from those who aren't near our store where we offer thousands of books under $100 – from $5 up.

Considering shipping costs and the fact that we ship UPS with delivery to your door, offering single titles under $100 isn't financially feasible.

However – let's give it a try. If your total order is $100 or more – it can include or consist of books under $100, i.e. buy a $75 book and a $50 book and receive free UPS shipping, or buy 2 $50 books and receive free shipping. Orders $100 and over include FREE shipping. Orders under $100 will be shipped UPS at $15.

Give it a try; if we receive enough orders for books under $100, we'll continue to offer them in future newsletters.

Enjoy!

- SOLD 7. Claiborne, John Herbert SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS IN OLD VIRGINIA. New York and Washington, 1904. Neale Publishing Co. xvi, (17)-360 pages. Krick #80 Frontis of Claiborne, 1 full page plate on coated stock. Dornbusch IV-8022. 12th Virginia Infantry. “Revealing for this observant physician’s reminiscences of life in wartime Petersburg, VA.” – Civil War Books. “Among the best of the Virginia books published by Neale.” – Krick, Neale Books. Dr. Claiborne held the rank of Major in the CS Army and served as a Surgeon with the 12th VA Inf., Surgeon in the brigade that included the 41st (Mahone’s Brigade) and as Director of all military hospitals in the Petersburg, VA Area. Claiborne was very detailed in his writings, especially important are his descriptions and comments on the Confederate retreat to Appomattox.” – Krick. First edition, clean, tight, bright copy. This copy belonged to Colonel W. H. Taylor, Lee’s adjutant and is so signed on the front fly “W. H. Taylor.” Claiborne interacted with Lee and writes well of the Confederate cause and Confederate soldiers. “Literally leaving all, – friends, fortune, home, – they laid down their lives for principle. And wherever you find a Confederate monument to the dead, there you will find at its foot the grave of a Maryland soldier.” Laid in is a 4-page typed letter signed from Claiborne to Taylor. Claiborne writes of Dahlgren’s raid and his closure had me wiping my eyes. Also laid in is a letter from F. J. Dickman – in an envelope addressed in a fine hand to “Col. W. H. Taylor” “Norfolk, Va.

February 21, 1906

Col. W. H. Taylor

My dear Sir:

Many Thanks to you for the privilege of reading Dr. Claiborne’s “Seventy Five Years in Old Virginia,” which I herewith return. The perusal has afforded my much pleasure and instruction. The doctor’s views are presented clearly and vigorously, and in a style scholarly, with a sweetness of culture that in a measure make the sting less sharp. He tells many truths, which, though not agreeable to Northern Ears, the Historic Muse will not let die.

I am, Sincerely Yours,

F. J. Dickman

SEARCH WITHIN THIS NEWSLETTER – Here's how

One of the great things about receiving your newsletter via email is that you can search the PDF file.

Depending on your computer, with the newsletter opened, you should be able to go to "Edit" "Find" on your taskbar or Ctrl + F to bring up a search box. Type in what you are looking for. Any word is searchable in the search box; i.e., if you are interested in Jackson or Texas, Gettysburg, Manassas, Hays, Lincoln, etc., just type it into the search box to find where it appears in the Newsletter. Continue the search by clicking on "Find Next" at the bottom of the search box. Another search note: when searching a numbered unit, always search for the numerical listing (10th) and the written word (Tenth). Our titles are listed as they appear on the title page of the book.

21. Eggleston, George Cary THE HISTORY OF THE CONFEDERATE WAR; ITS CAUSES AND ITS CONDUCT. New York, NY 1910. 2 Vols. Dornbusch III, 191. In Tall Cotton #53. Eggleston served in the 1st Virginia Cavalry. Harwell In Tall Cotton #53: “The most literate general history of the war from a Confederate participant.” “An account of high literary merit; remarkably objective, thought inaccurate in some details.” Nevins II, p. 173. First edition, interiors clean and tight, excepting front fly of Volume 1 foxed, hinges tightened, spine of Volume 1 rubbed, faded (per usual). Protected by a clear acid-free mylar dust jackets. $150.00

22. Evans, Clement Anselm CONFEDERATE MILITARY HISTORY 19 volumes. 1987. In Tall Cotton #54. Confederate Military History is the best and most used source for Confederate military history. It was first published in 1899 by General Clement A. Evans in 12 volumes. The volumes were written by former Confederates, many of them famous in their own right; men such as Jed Hotchkiss, Joe Wheeler, Bradley Johnson and Ellison Capers. Confederate Military History details the military history of the Confederacy and of each Confederate state. Each volume includes eye-witness battle accounts, first-hand narratives and maps and military organizational charts. There are 156 detailed battle maps, some folding, in the set. The state volumes conclude with biographies of the general officers from that state.

Who says Confederate Military History is great—besides Tom Broadfoot—who isn't exactly a disinterested party?

“...good and useful...” IN TALL COTTON, #54—Richard Harwell (greatest Confederate bibliographer)

“An unrivaled mine of fact.” THE SOUTH TO POSTERITY—Douglas Southall Freeman (greatest Confederate scholar)

“An excellent reference work...valuable biographical sketches.” CIVIL WAR BOOKS-A CRITICAL BIBLIOGRAPHY (best guide to Civil War books)

“...this set continues to offer a large amount of useful information for researchers investigating the military history of the Confederacy.” —THE CIVIL WAR IN BOOKS

How does the “Extended” Edition compare to the regular edition?

A. The extended edition has fifteen times as many biographies of Confederates as the regular edition. The regular edition covers only generals, whereas the extended edition includes biographies of men of all ranks (including privates). Also in the extended volumes are 132 additional illustrations of Confederate soldiers—most in uniform.

B. The extended edition includes the very rare volume Confederates in the North—never before published.

C. Last, and most important, for this extended edition Broadfoot's has compiled a two-volume, 1322-page cumulative and subjective index which references every name and important fact in Confederate Military History in an easy-to-find manner. The original edition has no real index, only a 34-page listing of highlights.

A few volumes speckled at top edge of pages, otherwise fine. $700.00 which is half of retail – plus free postage on these heavy volumes. A deal!

33. Hunter, Alexander JOHNNY REB AND BILLY YANK. New York and Washington 1905. Neale Publishing Company. 720 pages. Krick #241. Frontis and illustrations. Dornbusch II, VA-1396. In Taller Cotton 115. "Alexander Hunter served in the 17th Virginia Infantry through the spring of 1863, then secured a transfer to the 4th Virginia Cavalry. His book's particular value arises from its extensive discussion of field and camp life of enlisted men. It has received wide use and attention from Civil War students and collectors-perhaps more than its considerable worth warrants. Walter Neale himself was very fond of Hunter and wrote a glowing review of the man and his books in Neale's Monthly for February, 1914." – Krick. "A veracious account of the life of a soldier in Lee's army, highly quoted and highly in demand." – Nevins.
