#65 Seven Scarce Whig Campaign Pamphlets...1852

- SOLD
65. SEVEN SCARCE WHIG CAMPAIGN PAMPHLETS FOR THE 1852 PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION. Washington, DC 1852. 1. A History of the Wrongs Inflicted on Winfield Scott, by the Supporters of Franklin Pierce. A Whig protest against Democrats' vilification of their presidential candidate, an old soldier who has always done his duty and placed honor and country above partisan interests. The pamphlet explores his military career in detail, especially his service in the Mexican War, and says "American defamers of Gen. Scott" are tools of "their British allies." 2. The Presidency: Winfield Scott—Franklin Pierce; Their Qualifications and Fitness for that High Office. A Whig attack on the character and record of the Democrat Pierce, a man of questionable character who has opposed necessary internal improvements and treated his fellow citizens with casual contempt. Scott is a statesman of simple habits and sterling character. Miles 341. 3. Die Präsidentschaft—Winfield Scott—Franklin Pierce; Inre Fahigkeit und Thatigkeit zu Diesem Hohen Amte. German language translation of the above item, adding a paragraph entitled, 'Das Leben General Scott's in einer Nuttshale.' Miles 340 4. Winfield Scott Und Seine Verlaumder. A rare German-language campaign pamphlet. Miles 343. 5. General Winfield Scott. Scarce German language translation of this campaign pamphlet. Miles 325. 6. Anecdotes of Winfield Scott as Soldier and as Citizen. 7. Robinson, William E(riena). A New York lawyer and Irish American, Robinson had been born in the old country and graduated from Yale, where he resigned his Yale Daily News Editorship because of it's Know-Nothing leanings. He organized the movement for the relief of Ireland in 1847. In an unusual departure from his normal Democratic home, he denounces Franklin Pierce for his "bigotry" in supporting the exclusion of Catholics from equal right in New Hampshire. The names of Pierce and bigotry are "concomitant." Sabin 72211. All disbound. Protected by a clear acid-free mylar sleeve with an acid-free white backing sheet.

SEARCH WITHIN THIS NEWSLETTER – Here’s how

One of the great things about receiving your newsletter via email is that you can search the PDF file.

Depending on your computer, with the newsletter opened, you should be able to go to “Edit” “Find” on your taskbar or Ctrl + F to bring up a search box. Type in what you are looking for. Any word is searchable in the search box; i.e., if you are interested in Jackson or Texas, Gettysburg, Manassas, Hays, Lincoln, etc., just type it into the search box to find where it appears in the Newsletter. Continue the search by clicking on “Find Next” at the bottom of the search box. Another search note: when searching a numbered unit, always search for the numerical listing (10th) and the written word (Tenth). Our titles are listed as they appear on the title page of the book.

(If you have received a printed copy of this newsletter and would like a digital copy, please email bpc@ec.rr.com and request a PDF copy.)
