Dornbusch II-CB 2805. Krick #239. "This book is comprised of the fairly useful memoirs of a captain in the 7th Virginia Cavalry. Humphreys strings together an amazing succession of cavalry riding and raiding. There is special emphasis on Jackson's 1862 Shenandoah Valley campaign, and on the Battle of the Wilderness. Anecdotes about Jackson and General William E. Jones enliven the way. This book must be used with real caution, but it is worth using under the right circumstances." – Krick. First edition, interior tight, clean and uncut, embossed seal of former owner to upper margin of 1 front fly, not obtrusive, minor soil and speckles to boards. Protected by a clear acid-free dust jacket. $400.00

61. Monteiro, Aristides WAR REMINISCENCES BY THE SURGEON OF MOSBY'S COMMAND. Richmond 1890. viii, [9]- 208 pages plus errata sheet and advertisement page at rear. Dornbusch II-1281. Howes M-735. Frontis of Monteiro. This edition includes three additional chapters on the author's prison life not in the first printing of the same year." "An excellent, unexaggerated narrative of life with the Confederacy's foremost partisan range; Dr. Monteiro penned his recollections in the decade immediately following the war." Nevins 1, p. 132. Monteiro states that his memoirs were written more "than a dozen years" after Appomattox. Monteiro was on duty as regimental surgeon of the 26th Virginia at Petersburg in the fall of 1864. Accompanying some wounded soldiers to Richmond he by chance encountered Mosby, with whom he had been a student at the University of Virginia prior to the War. Monteiro's account of how Mosby managed to have him transferred to his battalion is remarkable, demonstrating the value placed on his services by Lee, as well as the fierce determination of the man to carry out his will in whatever undertaking. An excellently written book, invaluable for an understanding of Mosby. Interior clean and tight, dark brown cloth, a few slight speckles, gold lettering bright. Signed and dated by W. Ben Palmer, i.e. Lt. William B. Palmer, a member of Mosby's Rangers. Protected by a clear acid-free mylar dust jacket. $1,050.00

Copy #2: 236 pages plus errata page. The expanded scarcer 1890 edition. The additional material is 3 chapters on prison life which are not noted in the table of contents. Interior tight, pages evenly toned, red-brown cover faded. Presentation copy to C.H. Jenkins signed by Monteiro. $800.00

Copy #3: Richmond 1898. Wraps. Wraps bound in, front wrap outer margins lacking, wrap expertly preserved. Burgandy with black spine label, gold lettering bright. The most uncommon version of this title. $600.00
